AMERICAN INTERESTS SLAIN BY REBELS

Manager of U. S. Vice-Consul's Ranch in Durango, Mexico, Murdered
More Than 200 Soldiers Are Killed in Battle at Aura Pass

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2.—Hubert L. Russell, manager of the San Juan Michis ranch in Durango, which is the property of Allen C. McCaughan, the American vice-consul at that place, was murdered Sunday night by the rebels. Consul Theodore C. Hall reported the tragedy to the American embassy here in a cipher telegram, which, by an error in translation, was first given out by the embassy officials as involving the killing of McCaughan and Cliff, another American of Durango. Ambassador Wilson immediately made representations to the government, and today received assurances that every effort will be made to capture and punish the murderers.

200 SLAIN IN BATTLE.
EAGLE PASS, Texas, Oct. 2.—Two hundred and five men were killed in a battle between Mexican rebels and federal troops at Eagle Pass, Mexico, on Monday evening, according to reports that reached here today. Seven federal officers were reported killed. There were about 500 men on each side, the rebels being commanded by General Blanes. The rebels retreated last night in the face of federal reinforcements.

ARMY OFFICERS ARRESTED.
DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 2.—In a clash of civil and military authorities, Major Cuesta, Mexican consul at Douglas, Powell Roberts, chief of the Mexican government secret service, and four officers of the United States army were arrested by the county sheriff and charged with unlawfully entering the Hotel Mexico and assaulting the proprietor, D. J. Genardini, or aiding therein, in a search without a warrant for a rebel leader whom they designed to take into custody.
The names of the officers of the United States army under arrest are withheld. It is said they are members of the Ninth Cavalry.
The arrests are the result of the attempt of the Mexican authorities to utilize the United States army officials where the county and state authorities denied them.
A few days ago the county authorities were asked to arrest Joaquin Fiquera, a supposed rebel leader.
The county authorities refused to issue a warrant or make the arrest. Meanwhile, it is said, Colonel Gul-

INTERESTS AIDED T. R.

Standard Oil and Morgan Each Contributed $100,000
Former Treasurer Republican National Committee Tells of Fund

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—George R. Sheldon, former treasurer of the Republican national committee, testified before the Clapp committee today that in 1904 the Standard Oil Company contributed $100,000, J. P. Morgan & Company $100,000, H. C. Fryck, $100,000, and George J. Gould $100,000.
Sheldon said he had no personal knowledge of these contributions but that the late Cornelius N. Bliss, then treasurer, had shown him his report.
"When I took charge of the treasury in 1908 Mr. Bliss handed me a list of large contributors of 1904," he said.
"What percentage was contributed by corporations?"
"To be frank 73 1/2 per cent."
"Was any contribution made by the Standard Oil Company?"
"Yes, sir."
"How much?"
"$100,000."
CHARGED TO ARCHBOLD.
Sheldon said the Standard Oil contribution was not on the list as coming from the oil company but it was charged to John D. Archbold.
"Do you remember any other large contributions?" asked Senator Clapp.
"Yes, J. P. Morgan and Company gave $100,000. H. C. Fryck, $100,000, and George J. Gould, $100,000," answered Mr. Sheldon.
"I remember those because of their size. I do not recall any others," he said.
Exchanges between Senators Dixon and Pomerene became so heated that Mr. Pomerene invited Mr. Dixon "outside," but the affair was passed off without conflict. Mr. Dixon closed his testimony without giving the names of his informants that large sums had been spent for Mr. Taft.

DIXON EXAMINED.
When the Clapp committee investigating campaign funds met today to examine Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, Col. Roosevelt's political manager, its members discussed the senator's announcement of last night that he would ask the committee to call Chairman Hill of the Republican national committee and Chairman McCall of the Democratic national committee.
The senators pointed out today that it already had been announced that they will call those two men as well as the financial managers of Oscar W. Underwood and Champ Clark.
Senator Dixon's statement was the first thing to claim the attention of the committee when it met. Senator Pomerene vigorously resented the Montana senator's criticism of the committee and with Senator Clapp, Pomerene and Oliver held a private conference to determine what was to be done.
ACTION NOT ANNOUNCED.
The committee concluded its executive session without announcing any action.

CONVICTS LYNCH NEGRO

Prisoners Take Revenge on Boasting Assailant of Aged Woman
"First Man to Squeal Will Be Next Man Hung," Is Warning

RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 2.—"The first man that squeals is the next man hung." This was the warning given to all prisoners in the Wyoming state penitentiary as the result of the lynching early today of George Wigfall, negro and convict, according to a statement credited to Warden Astor. The official declined to give the source of his information.
Wigfall was yesterday arrested at Steele on a charge of having assaulted Mrs. Esther Higgins, aged 78, last Sunday. He was brought to the penitentiary for safe keeping. Wigfall was placed in a cell on the third floor.
BOASTS OF DEED.
This morning as the other convicts passed Wigfall's cell on their way to breakfast, the negro laughed and boasted about his deed. This incensed the prisoners, who quietly perfected their plans for vengeance.
After breakfast with 150 convicts in the prison yard, about half of them started for the cell house. They overpowered the keeper, who at the time was changing the negro into another cell, and locked the keeper in a cell.
One of the convicts produced a rope which he had secreted under his coat. A half hitch was placed around the negro's neck and he was dropped from the cell house balcony a distance of 30 feet. The force of the fall broke Wigfall's neck.
The time consumed in the lynching was less than five minutes and so quietly did the prisoners work that none but the cell housekeeper, who was overpowered, knew what was happening. The lyncher then returned to their work.
Warden Astor at once started an investigation, but at noon it was said that he had been unable to identify positively anyone participating. He expressed the opinion that his Wigfall's assault been made upon any one other than Mrs. Higgins and had he not laughed and boasted about it, the lynching would not have occurred.
"Granny" Higgins, as she was known among the prisoners, was known for her kindness to the sick and afflicted. The aged woman is said to be recovering. Later today an inquest will be held over the negro.

Oaklander Is Arrested for Wearing Exaggerated Decollete.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Found wandering along Pacific street in high, exaggerated decollete costume, William McGeehan of 1715 E 15th street, Oakland, was taken into custody by Patrolman Higgins at an early hour this morning. McGeehan complained that he had been robbed of his hat and his shoes and his suit of clothes by a Porto Rican who had also taken his $7 in cash.
He said he was on his way to find a friend who would give him another costume, but he didn't know who that friend was to make use of a barrel. His arrest solved the difficulty and he was fitted out at the police station so that he could return to his home.

ECCLESTON LOVE LETTERS QUOTED MISSIVES STOLEN, IS ACCUSATION

Affection "Not Like That of Other Girls," Is Charge Denied

That the marital deficiencies of Maud Johnson Eccleston centered upon the fact that her love was not like that of other girls and that during the entire time she was being courted by Louis Eccleston and up to the time she married him she did not permit him to caress her was the testimony offered before Superior Judge Harris this morning by Charles Hudson Eccleston, who is being sued by his former sister-in-law for $25,000 damages for alienating the affections of the husband and bringing about the divorce.
Eccleston swore that he was not responsible for the separation and that whatever advice he gave his brother was solicited by the latter and given in the best of faith. Eccleston created a favorable impression on the stand.
Combating this contention of the defense, letters were introduced by the plaintiff from her husband and one by him to his brother in which the situation in 1909 was shown, and which were offered as proof that the affection between husband and wife at that time was all that might be expected. The Ecclestons said that the letters were stolen from Louis Eccleston's desk.
The husband has already testified that his brother had nothing to do with the separation and has admitted that he was paying attention to another woman, a Mrs. Stiphon. On the witness stand this morning Charles Eccleston, the brother, testified that he did not know his brother loved Mrs. Stiphon until the present trial opened, and he heard it from the testimony.

GLAVIS' SALARY HELD UP BY STATE

Action Taken Following Charge He Is 'With' Interests

SACRAMENTO, October 2.—Following the charges made by Surveyor General Kingsbury and by State Forester Homans that Lewis St. Glavis, secretary of the State Conservation Commission, has been working in the interest of big lumber corporations and the enemies of conservation instead of in the interests of the state of California, the State Board of Control has held up his salary of $170 for the month of September on the conservation commission, but has allowed his salary of $150 for the month of September on the State Water Control Board. Glavis is being sued by the state for $150 for the month of September on the State Water Control Board.

Dr. George C. Parden, president of the State Conservation Commission, and former governor of California, came to Sacramento today for the purpose of making a personal investigation of the charges against Glavis. He had a conference with the State Board of Control and later went into consultation with Surveyor General Kingsbury.

WORLD POWERS MAY BE DRAWN INTO CONFLICT

Whole of the Balkan Peninsula Rapidly Transferred Into Armed Camp

Million Troops Already Mobilized and Slightest Untoward Incident Will Start Conflagration

LONDON, Oct. 2.—(F.R.) Turkish soldiers fired several times today in the direction of the Serbian frontier town of Haskia, according to a special dispatch from Belgrade. The telegram states that the Serbian ministry has received reports that the inhabitants are leaving the town in flight.

DANGER IS GREAT.
LONDON, October 2.—The whole of the Balkan peninsula is being rapidly transferred into an armed camp. According to dispatches from the capitals from the various states, upwards of a million men have been ordered to gather to decide once for all in a trial by combat, the question of changing the map of the Balkans. The effect of a demonstration of the military forces of the Balkan states is first to be tried. For this purpose, Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro have ordered the mobilization of their entire available armies and if this open threat does not secure what they demand from the Ottoman government, the next few hours may see further steps taken.
AGAINST COMMON ENEMY.
The four Balkan states are rapidly organizing to act together in arms for the first time against the common enemy—Turkey. The Ottoman authorities are no less busy, while it is seen from dispatches from Vienna that Austria will find it impossible much longer to refrain from taking military precautions in order to keep the Serbians from encroaching upon territory which Austria-Hungary claims must remain part of Turkey and not become an adjunct of greater Serbia.

LOOKS TO ROUMANIA.
Turkey is looking also to Roumania to those in her lot with the Ottoman troops in which Bulgaria would find herself sandwiched between two formidable foes and might be crushed. It is also conceivable that Albanians, forgetting their grievances against the Ottoman empire, might assist the troops against which they have been so recently fighting.
The stock exchange here again marked down all speculative stocks at the opening today from fear of further unfavorable news, but the absence of an actual outbreak of hostilities soon created a strong feeling. Prices thereon hardened and a general advance occurred in buying orders from Paris.

WOULD PREVENT WAR.
PARIS, October 2.—The French diplomatic representatives in the Balkan states have received instructions from the French government to exercise all possible proper influence in order to prevent war between the Balkan states and Turkey.
It is understood that French banking interests will refuse all requests for advances made by states which eventually may become belligerents and (Con. on Page 3, Cols. 2-3-4.)

$1,000,000 DEAL IN WATERFRONT HOLDINGS

Valuable Block of Land Involved in the Sale

The Oakland Dock and Warehouse Company today transferred its valuable holdings on the estuary waterfront to the Santa Fe Land Improvement Company, an adjunct of the Santa Fe railway. The deal is one of the most important that has transpired in Oakland for several years and is believed to represent over a million dollars.
The deeds confirming the transaction were filed this afternoon in the office of the county recorder and show that the property transferred is bounded by Alice, First, Fallon and two other streets, and covers a tract of 155,510 sq. ft. The Oakland Dock and Warehouse Company transfer at the same time all rights, franchises, trucks and all large facilities.
The conveyance is subject to the lease on the property held by the Hunter-Tracy Company, dated July 1, 1911, for five years, the lease held by Huch and T. P. Hogan expiring June 1, 1917, the lease held by the American Fuel Company expiring July 1, 1913 and the conveyance from month to month, subject to termination on six months' written notice.

LEGAL RULING PROVES DANGER OF ANNEXATION

San Francisco's Bonded Indebtedness Would Fall on Oakland

The following communication from two prominent firms of attorneys is self-explanatory.
OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 1, 1912.
Dear Sir:—
In reply to your request we have made a careful examination of the proposed amendment to section 2, article XI of the constitution of the state of California relating to the formation of consolidated city and county governments insofar as the same may be applicable to any bonds already authorized by the city and county of San Francisco, but which have not already been sold and may not be outstanding at the time of a possible consolidation of the city and county of San Francisco with other territory, but may be thereafter sold.
Our conclusion is that if such bonds be valid and if they be sold subsequent to the time of any such consolidation, then and in that event all property accessible for city and county purposes within the new consolidated city and county government would be assessed for the purpose of raising revenue to pay interest and principal of said bonds.
Respectfully submitted,

SENATOR DIXON WOULD BROADEN SCOPE OF PROBE

Declares That Taft and Wilson Funds Also Should Be Investigated

and J. G. Cannon, president of the Fourth National Bank of New York took the stand. Cannon said that he added only the accounts of expenditures by the late Mr. Bliss and had no knowledge of the contributions to the fund. Specifically he said he knew nothing of the $100,000 contribution John L. Archbold has said was made by the Standard Oil Company to Colonel Roosevelt's 1904 campaign.

Senator Dixon followed Cannon and testified that he had collected funds other than those handled by Progressive Treasurer Hooker, who informed the committee yesterday that the total expenditures of the Roosevelt national committee were about $141,000.

"I would like to know the full scope of the investigation," demanded Senator Dixon.

"Does this include the Republican as well as the Democratic campaign funds?"

"Yes," replied Clapp.

WANTS SCOPE BROADENED.

"Of course," continued Senator Dixon, "the general impression is that this is rather an investigation of only the pre-convention campaign of Colonel Roosevelt."

"Now, as a member of the Senate, I want to see the campaign funds of President Taft, Governor Wilson and Governor Harrison also investigated. And I think this should be done before election."

Senator Dixon insisted he was sure the committee was investigating only Colonel Roosevelt's expenses. He said he wanted the committee to summon the managers of Champ Clark, Oscar Underwood, Cavanah and President Taft.

Senator Clapp told the witness he had already given out a list showing that all the men named had been summoned, and he demanded that Senator Dixon answer questions.

WANTS FAIR PLAY.

"The country wants fair play," returned Senator Dixon. "It wants those other men examined within the next few days before election."

"Senator Dixon," exclaimed Chairman Clapp, rising from his seat, "a suggestion that there has not been fair play here is a reflection on the one man in this committee who is friendly to Colonel Roosevelt."

The committee members decided that Senator Dixon be examined about the Roosevelt funds. Chairman Clapp told Senator Dixon he could tell what he knew about other candidates later.

"I'd send him to jail," declared Senator Pomeroy as Senator Dixon closed his remarks to the committee.

Senator Dixon then told what contributions he had personally received.

PERKINS AND MUNSEY.

William Eno, a relative of Gifford Pinchot, gave him $5000; Frank Munsey gave him some money, probably $5000, and more from time to time; George W. Perkins made several contributions; Mrs. Pinchot made $5000; Dan R. Hanna made several contributions. About $55,000 or $56,000 was the total Senator Dixon gave as the amount he personally had spent.

"I did not keep any books," he said. "I spent the money as fast as I got it."

Senator Dixon said he had given $5000 to the Cleveland Club in the Capitol, he said, had given $500.

"What do you know of efforts to change the votes of Southern delegates by the use of money?" Senator Clapp asked.

"Nothing, except hearsay," answered Dixon vigorously.

"Do you know by report of any such attempts in which you had a part or acquiesced?" asked Senator Platt.

"Not a thing," said Dixon. He said he collected no funds for the holding of the Progressive National Convention in August, that he received $15,000 necessary for the holding of the local committee in Chicago.

NAMES 'LEADERS.'

Senator Dixon mentioned briefly the names of those who handled Roosevelt funds in Eastern States. There were many "leaders of the uprising in Illinois," he said, among them Chauncey Dewey, Medill McCormick, Edward H. Sims and Alexander E. Russell. Dewey, he said, would know most about contributions in Wisconsin. "We gave our moral support to the La Follette electors."

Governor Hadley would know most about contributions in Missouri, he thought; Edward C. Orr in Kentucky; George Taylor in Tennessee; J. A. Comer in Arkansas; Cecil Layton in Texas; Judge Moore in Washington; Dan Kellner and Dr. Henry W. Coe in Oregon.

Senator Dixon interspersed his replies with a running fire of comment as to how the Roosevelt forces were "forced" to do this or that, and "swept every district" in others.

"Virginia was foreclosed on them," he said; in Louisiana "the sugar trust took charge of the Taft campaign"; in New Jersey they "swept everything"; in Florida and other states the officeholders opposed them.

HAD LESS MONEY.

Senator Dixon said the Roosevelt people had less money in proportion to the results accomplished than any other pre-convention candidate and declare more was spent for Taft, Underwood, Clark and Wilson.

When Senator Oliver took up Senator Dixon's statement yesterday the two men got in a bitter argument, both talking at once.

He charged that the majority of the committee was opposed to Roosevelt and that the entire investigation appeared to be directed against the colonel.

"Let's have Mr. McCombs and Mr. McCord brought here and find out how much Governor Wilson spent in order to know how much Mr. Bliss spent in the Taft campaign," exclaimed Dixon.

He turned to Senator Pomeroy, who was active in the investigation campaign, and said:

"I think Senator Pomeroy might tell us something about Governor Harmon's expenses."

"I'd like to have Senator Oliver tell how much money was spent in the Pennsylvania campaign."

Senator Oliver replied he would be glad to take the stand.

Senator Dixon said W. E. Roosevelt had given him $5000 for the expenses of the Washington office.

HADLEY'S DEMANDS.

Senator Dixon said he had sent some money in reply to urgent demands by Governor Hadley of Missouri for primaries in the larger cities of the state.

Senator Paynter pointed out that the committee had before it charges that had been made by the Roosevelt people before the election. Senator Oliver confessed exchange of comment followed.

"Was this $25,000 that Perkins, Munsey and Hanna each gave to you in addition to the amounts given to E. H. Hooker in the New York campaign?" asked Senator Dixon.

Senator Dixon said it was.

Senator Paynter asked if Herman Fischer, in charge of the New York headquarters, was connected with the sugar interests. Senator Dixon insisted the "sugar trust" was opposed to Colonel Roosevelt, but he did not know whether Fraser was connected with sugar interests.

"GOT HARD UP."

Senator Dixon said that when he "got hard up" he went back to Perkins. All the rest of the plutocrats were for Taft," he said.

Senator Dixon suggested that the committee summon Josiah Quincy of Boston, William A. Wood of New York, George H. Harney of New York and William F. McCombs. Through them, he said, he believed the committee would find that "a gentleman named Penfield" of Philadelphia had given $50,000 to Governor Wilson's campaign.

"I also suggest the calling of Thomas F. Ryan," he said. "I have been reliably informed that he contributed a large sum to the campaign of Mr. Underwood; that he is the auditor of the Southern Railroad, also gave to this campaign. I have been informed that large sums were given by the financiers of New York to the presidential campaign of Governor Harrison."

He also mentioned Fred B. Lynch of Minnesota and E. D. Johnson of South Dakota as possible contributors.

Senator Dixon further asked the committee to summon Lewis Hammerling of New York, whom he said he was informed was the advertising agent of the Standard Oil Company, and had been given funds to control the editorial policy of the New York newspapers published in foreign languages.

"I would like to have Charles P. Taft summoned here and asked if he spent, as is commonly reported, $500,000 to nominate Mr. Taft."

TALKS WITH T. R.

Later, when Senator Paynter asked Sheldon about the Harrison contribution of 1904, and to detail the circumstances as he had given them on his appearance before the committee several weeks ago, Sheldon said that his letter about the Harrison fund was written as the result of a talk with Colonel Roosevelt. He related his talk as follows:

"I said to Colonel Roosevelt, 'here's the Harrison fund again. Some one ought to tell the truth about that.' Colonel Roosevelt told me he felt rather sore that neither Cortelyou nor Bliss had told what they knew about it. I told him that I knew about it. He said I told him that I was willing to tell about it. As a result I wrote that letter."

The letter gave an account of B. E. Odell's getting Bliss to raise $200,000 which was turned over to the New York state committee.

FUNDS NOT MIXED.

He said the Harrison fund had not entered into the funds collected for and spent by the Republican national committee for the Roosevelt national 1904 convention.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, in a stormy session with the committee testified that he had spent $95,000 in the Progressive primary campaign which was not included in the figures presented yesterday.

Progressive Treasurer E. H. Hooker.

The $95,000, Senator Dixon said, was in addition to the $141,000 Hooker told yesterday, handed by the Roosevelt fund.

Hooker had handled for the New York local campaign and the $102,000 William F. Pinchot had given for the campaign in Virginia. The $25,000, he said, was also in addition to the $25,000 given to the New York headquarters by Hanna.

The $15,000 given by Munsey and $22,000 given by Perkins.

Senator Dixon said he had kept no accurate record of his expenditures. He said $25,000 had come from George W. Perkins; $25,000 from Frank A. Munsey and $25,000 from Dan R. Hanna.

"That whenever I saw a man who was a backer to Perkins."

Senator Dixon demanded that Charles P. Taft be summoned to tell whether he had spent $500,000 to secure President Taft's renomination, and the committee agreed to consider the suggestion.

"HOOKER MISTAKEN."

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 2.—Senator La Follette said today that he had requested Charles P. Taft to call Charles R. Crane of Chicago before the Senate campaign investigating committee. He had requested Crane to produce his cancelled checks.

"Hooker is mistaken," said Senator La Follette.

WILSON MAKES DENIAL.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 2.—Governor Wilson today denied knowledge of a $10,000 contribution to his campaign fund by Charles R. Crane of Chicago, when shown the report of the evidence before the Senate committee yesterday.

"It can't be true," said the Governor, "or I would have heard of it. I know what the total contributions were."

He said he was under the impression that Mr. Crane did not contribute at all to the pre-convention campaign fund.

WESTERN CO. SUIT GOES TO HIGHER TRIBUNAL

PLACERVILLE, Cal., Oct. 2.—The Superior court granted today the request of the Stone and Webster Construction company, and the Truckee River General Electric company that the suit brought against them by the Western company and other holders of property on Lake Tahoe be removed to the United States Circuit court of the district of Northern California.

Following a decision of the federal court, however, the Superior court ordered that the temporary injunction which it had already allowed restraining the defendants from doing any and all acts to obstruct the flow of water in Lake Tahoe should be continued.

The court based its action on a finding that both Stone and Webster and the Truckee General Electric are foreign corporations.

SUNKEN SLOOP SAID TO HAVE HAD MEN ABOARD

Identity of Vessel Lost in Collision Is Veiled in Mystery

That at least two persons were aboard the sailing craft which was run down late Monday night and sunk by the steam schooner Charles Nelson was ascertained today when a number of local waterfront men declared that they had seen earlier in the day of the collision a strange yacht with two men aboard on the bay. According to these reports the craft was foreign to this port and fitted out, being manned apparently for a long trip. Investigation today by passing tugs showed that the sunken craft was badly smashed and lying in such a position that it will take considerable time to raise her.

The sloop lies off the Peralta-street wharf with but a portion of her top mast above the water. No yachts or sloops are missing from any of the local yachting clubs and private fleets. It is generally believed that the unknown craft with her two-man crew had thrown out her anchor at the point where she was struck with the intention of laying over for the night. Her crew neglected to put out a warning light and the Charles Nelson ran her down. There is practically no doubt that the yacht was occupied at the time of the crash, as several of the crew of the steamer are quoted as having declared that they heard cries just after the crash.

8 IN RACE FOR VANDERBILT CUP

$6500 in Cash Prizes Will Be Given Winner of Event.

at 11 o'clock over the new Wauwaton course. De Palma was followed closely by Hughie Hughes, Mercer Special, Then Ralph Mulford, Harry Nelson, Spencer Wishart, Gil Anderson, George Clark and Teddy Tetzlaff were sent away at 30-second intervals in the order named.

De Palma made the first lap, 7.88 miles, from a standing start, in 6:57. Tetzlaff drove the first lap in 8:27 and thereupon began setting a killing pace.

At the end of the first 25 miles of the 29-mile race Eddy Tetzlaff was leading De Palma by 1:11.

Ralph Mulford was put out of the race in the third lap by magneto trouble in his Knox Special.

At the end of 100 miles, or a little more than a third of the entire distance, Tetzlaff was leading De Palma by 5:11.

TETZLAFF OUT OF IT.

Tetzlaff after leading for more than 200 miles in the race for the Vanderbilt cup burned out the engines in his big Fiat car in the twenty-eighth lap and was forced to withdraw from the race. De Palma then took the lead, closely pressed by Hughes.

At 220 miles De Palma led Hughie Hughes by only one minute thirty seconds. Wishart was in third place two minutes back of Hughes. De Palma's average speed for that distance was sixty-nine miles an hour. At 250 miles De Palma led Hughes by forty-eight seconds, with forty-nine miles yet to go to finish the race. De Palma continued to lead Hughes at the end of 285 miles with only fourteen miles to go. Hughes was thirty-eight seconds behind De Palma.

RACE REWARDS.

The drivers were scheduled to make 299 miles, or 38 times around the 7.88-mile course, for fame, a costly trophy and $6500 in cash prizes.

The field of drivers included Ralph Mulford, winner of last year's Vanderbilt event at Savannah; Teddy Tetzlaff, the Californian who set new records at the recent race at Long Beach; and Ralph de Palma, winner of this year's Elgin national and freer-for-all races. Mulford was at the wheel of a Knox car. Tetzlaff drove a Fiat, and De Palma a Mercedes. In addition there were Gil Anderson, Harry Nelson, Mercer Special, George Clark, Mercedes; Harry Nelson, Mercer; and Hughie Hughes, Mercer.

TWO FAVORITES.

De Palma and Tetzlaff were favorites in the betting before the start. Conditions indicated the possibility that Ralph Mulford's record of 74 and a fraction miles per hour for last year's Vanderbilt might be eclipsed.

preparation due to weather conditions and uncompleted course.

The question of the safety or danger of the course was debated by officials, drivers and team managers up to the hour of starting the race.

The killing Bruce-Brown of New York during yesterday's time-trial race has renewed hostility toward the course exhibited 10 days ago, when the race program was postponed.

That the total registration for the November general election will run close to 30,000, was shown today by figures compiled by Chief Deputy County Clerk Andy Johnson. ## AMERICAN SLAIN ON MEXICAN FARM

Manager of Vice-Consul's Hacienda Is Killed by Rebels.

Hoyle, commanding the Ninth Cavalry, had received orders to arrest any rebel leader found on American soil.

Mexican and United States secret service agents traced the alleged rebel leader to the Hotel Mexico.

Last Sunday, accompanied by the Mexican consul, Chief Powell Roberts of the Mexican secret service and a troop of the Ninth Cavalry, the secret service men of both governments demanded the right to search the hotel for Espinosa.

Gerardini, it is alleged, demanded a search warrant. According to his story, he was assaulted by the troops of the Ninth Cavalry, pushed aside and thorough search of the hotel made by the visitors. Espinosa was not found.

Gerardini entered a complaint before Sheriff Wheeler of the county. The sheriff hurried here from Tompstone, and after a consultation with Justice of the Peace Benjamin Rice, who issued warrants, proceeded to make the arrests of all those in the searching party.

AMERICAN KILLED.

WICHITA, Kas., October 2.—Robert Russell, son of T. A. Russell of Kingman, Kas., was assassinated by Mexican rebels seventy-five miles west of Durango Sunday, according to a telegram received here. Robert Russell had been manager of a Mexican ranch since 1907. A widow and two children are now at Kingman, having fled from Mexico at the outbreak of the revolution.

"MURDER" MISPELLED:

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 2.—The misspelling of the word "murder" in an indictment almost caused a dismissal of a murder case here. Counsel for the prisoner insisted that the indictment be dropped, but Prosecutor George S. Silzer was ordered by Justice James J. Bergen to amend the indictment and the trial continued.

Alexander Komovic, of Perth Amboy, is the prisoner. He was indicted on the charge of murdering Mary Halliday, 12 years old, on July 1 last. When the case was called counsel for Komovic moved to quash the indictment, on the ground that the charge was that the defendant did willfully kill and murder the girl, James Swight, counsel for the defendant, held that the indictment was defective, in that no offense had been charged. He held "murder" was an old English game of ball, and the defect could not be excepted through the dismissal of the indictment.

Judge Bergen looked up cases bearing upon his point before he allowed Prosecutor George S. Silzer's motion to amend.

ANNEXATION PLOT IS CONDEMNED BY WOMEN

Addresses Against Amendment Are Made to Guests of Club

Ebell clubhouse was the scene yesterday afternoon of one of the most enthusiastic anti-annexation meetings held thus far.

Over 300 women voters of Oakland were present at the invitation of the civic section of the club, of which Mrs. Sarah C. Borland is curator, and the woman's auxiliary of the Anti-Annexation League, of which Mrs. Frank K. Mott is chairman, to hear a discussion of the annexation amendment to be presented at the November election.

In permitting the question to be considered publicly within its clubhouse, the Ebell Club departed from its old policy, owing to the importance of the question at issue.

Miss Mollie E. Connors, general secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, and W. E. Gibson, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, were the principal speakers. Mrs. Borland presided, as chairman.

LOYALTY AND FONDNESS.

Miss Connors spoke of the fondness and loyalty which people on this side of the bay should feel for San Francisco and the duty which Oakland owed her neighbor in promoting her natural growth.

"This is not Oakland's fight alone," she said, "we are not saying 'help us' that we are not grabbed up only, and we are saying help every county and city in the state, all of which will be affected by this bill if passed."

The work which the auxiliary was doing in sending out its literature throughout the state and in arranging smaller and large gatherings as a part of the campaign against annexation was outlined.

Facts and figures were given by President Gibson in his plea against the proposed amendment. He outlined the part which the Oakland Chamber of Commerce had played in the months which preceded the presentation of the bill and how they had acted that it be delayed until after the Panama-Pacific exposition.

"San Francisco has voted $84,000,000 bonds, including the Hotch Potch proposition and has to pay for the Spring Valley water plant an additional $38,500,000," he said. "About $16,000,000 bonds is all that the city is permitted according to law based on its valuation of $10,000,000."

"By annexing the proposed territory it will increase its property valuation by $90,000,000 and be able to continue the sale of its bonds already voted. Oakland will help San Francisco pay its debts. I am not willing to kill my city, which has awakened to become a strong commercial power for the politicians of the state or to pay my neighbor's bonds."

PROMINENT WOMEN PRESENT.

Among the prominent women who listened to the addresses were: Mrs. J. Loran Pease, Mrs. Geo. Cross, Mrs. J. W. McClymonds, Mrs. G. C. Turner, Mrs. W. W. Standford, Mrs. H. E. Hubbard, Mrs. F. F. Foster, Mrs. Thomas Bennett, Mrs. E. C. von Helms, Mrs. John Mole, Mrs. James Nalsmith, Mrs. G. W.

The campaign instituted by the women continues to grow. Voluntary offers of assistance are being received at the headquarters of the Women's Auxiliary from various parts of the State. The latest is from Mrs. W. A. Collins of Brentwood, who writes that sentiment in her town appears to be against the proposed amendment. She said she will be glad to use her efforts to defeat the amendment if the league will forward literature and give her directions. A supply was sent Mrs. E. A. Corwin of Hayward word that she was ready to assist in helping to forge the league's "endless chain" in her part of the county and asked for

DIVORCE SUIT IS NEAR AN END

S. W. Barr's Playful Letters to Mrs. Day Arouses Day's Ire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Judge Chandler Day, who says her husband is cruel and morose, and William Peyton Day, who thinks his wife too flippant and gay for a staid married woman, resumed their fight for a divorce in Judge Van Nostrand's court this morning. It is expected that the delicate question as to which should get the decree, or whether there should be one at all, will be decided by the court soon, as most of the evidence is now in.

No succeeding witness has as yet furnished the genuine humor manifest in the testimony of Sidney W. Barr, whose play "Lovers" Mrs. Day aroused the ire of her husband when he discovered that Day, who is a cashier at the Palace Hotel, endeavored to cast more light on the happenings at Monte Rio last July, in which he and Mrs. Day, together with Mrs. W. M. Day, mother of Mrs. Day, and Lee Marony, otherwise known as "Fat Success," are said to have figured.

Marony, being called to the stand and sworn, testified that he was well aware of the origin of the "fat" part of the nickname ascribed him, but could not swear as to the origin of the "success" Marony corroborated the testimony of Barr regarding the innocent pleasantness which were alluded to in the letters that provoked the suit.

Day, who becomes to the engineering firm of Leonard & Day, told of his wife's fondness for fine clothes as one of the symptoms of an undomestic habit of mind and gave instances of misunderstandings in which Mrs. Day's mother and her own mother had been causes of friction.

As a basis for an adjustment of alimony, J. B. Leonard, senior member of Day's firm, testified that Day had told him more than $8000 out of the firm last year. Mrs. Day asks $150 a month alimony.

POLICE CALLED ON TO CARE FOR MANY CRIMES

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—While waiting for a car at 15th and Market streets last night, Michael Vogel, a retired soldier living in the Golden West Hotel, Oakland, was relieved of $145 by a pickpocket, according to the complaint to the police this morning. Thomas Stevens, 530 Eighth avenue, told the police that he lost $75 on a street car by having his pocket picked. Felix Lanard of 165 Third street was also a victim of the light fingered gentry on the Barbary Coast last night. He says that he lost a diamond ring worth $150.

William Lyons, 113 Langdon street, has complained that on September 24, while he was ill at home, someone entered and walked away with his wife's sequin jacket.

WILBUR'S CASE GOES OVER FOR ONE WEEK

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Pending settlement of habeas corpus proceedings in the supreme court, the case against E. D. Wilbur, president of the Pacific Coast Trust Company, who was arrested yesterday at the instigation of Bank Commissioner Williams, has been continued for one week in the police court. Wilbur is accused of having violated the state banking law referring to trust companies by the misuse of the word "trust," as applying to his concern. The matter was brought up as a test case, Wilbur being agreeable to the action.

FRONTIER FIGHTING BEGINS
TURKEY IS NOW FACING CRISIS

KING NICHOLAS I OF MONTENEGRO AND QUEEN MILENA. NICHOLAS HAS ORDERED OUT HIS ARMY IN PREPARATION FOR WAR AGAINST TURKEY.

POWERS MAY BE DRAWN INTO BALKAN CONFLICT
General Conflagration Feared by Europe; War but Day Away

The Balkan nations are to be so informed.

No collective plan of the great powers to bring about a peaceful solution of the crisis is in sight. Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro have agreed to mobilize their armies and act together against Turkey, according to a statement made by Dr. Stancic, the Bulgarian minister here, in an interview in the Temps. He said that Bulgaria's financial situation was good and that the funds in the treasury were ample to sustain a war.

ORDERED HOME. Dr. Stancic added that twelve Bulgarian officers who are studying in French military schools had been ordered to rejoin the colors.

The Greek and Serbian ministers confirmed the accord and said their countrymen would not only stand the aggression of Turkey. They were ready to make any sacrifice to help their Christian brethren under Ottoman domination.

Rifaat Pasha, ambassador to France, said: "Turkey has no intention of permitting the Balkan states to interfere in its internal affairs, and it cannot be overruled by mobilizations."

PARTIAL MOBILIZATION.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 2.—The cabinet, after a prolonged meeting last night, decided to order a partial, not general, mobilization of the Turkish army. The exact orders are for the present secret.

The cabinet also rejected the Serbian demand respecting the transport of ammunition through the Turkish lines. This action is in reply to a note sent to the Porte by the Serbian minister, Dr. Negotovich, in which he requested that the Porte either sanction the passage of ammunition, at present detained by the Turkish authorities, or return it to France.

Serbia has now stopped consignments of ammunition from Germany for Turkey, while Bulgaria has suspended freight traffic between Turkey and Bulgaria and commandeered all the cars for military service.

The Porte has decided to detain all Greek vessels in Turkish waters, in order to requisition their services for the transport of troops.

Although no communication has been presented by any of the Balkan states with reference to Macedonia, it is the opinion of many diplomats that they will formulate a demand for Macedonian autonomy, which Turkey is certain to refuse. War then will be inevitable, unless the powers succeed in restraining Bulgaria and Serbia by a threat of occupation by Austria and Russia. But if the Turkish war can be averted by agreement upon such joint action.

Consequently it is regarded probable that Austria, backed by Germany, will act singly. Or it may be that war can be averted by assembling a European conference.

ITALY TO AID.

ROME, Oct. 2.—Italy's program in event of war in the Balkans has not been mapped out. It is known, however, that the Italian navy will play a prominent role, indirectly aiding the Balkan coalition by preventing Turkey from moving troops out of Asia Minor. To this end the Italian fleet will keep its full strength in the vicinity of the Aegean sea.

To move troops from Asia Minor toward Macedonia by land, it is said, probably would be beyond the resources available to the Turkish government. In any case it would entail a delay that would prove a blighting handicap.

REVOLT BREAKS OUT.

BELGRADE, Oct. 2.—The newspaper Politika is in receipt of a dispatch reporting that the Serbian inhabitants of Uskup, Kumanovo and other districts in European Turkey have broken out in revolt and attacked the Turks with axes, picks and bayonets. The whole region is in a state of terror.

The Serbian cabinet held a long sitting yesterday. The government has detained all railroad cars for military purposes. In event of war the king will take supreme command and the minister becoming chief of staff.

According to trustworthy information the Serbian army numbers 200,000 and the Bulgarian army 320,000.

CALLED HOME.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A cable message calling upon Bulgarians and Macedonians in this country to return home was posted today at the headquarters of the "Macedonian-Bulgarian Organization" on Morris street. The message was signed by the president of the central committee at Sofia and read as follows: "Stand all Bulgarians and Macedonians to Bulgaria."

There are only about 2000 Bulgarians and Macedonians in New York, but it was said that there are large colonies of these nationalities in East St. Louis, South Chicago, Pittsburgh and other industrial centers. Many of these are in the first or second reserve, having served their time in the army.

GREECE PROTESTS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 2.—Greece protested today, through her minister here, against the detention of Greek vessels in Turkish waters for the transporting of Ottoman troops, which steps the Turkish government said would be taken yesterday.

TO CONSIDER CRISIS.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 2.—The sanction of martial law in Bulgaria and the approval of the expenditure necessitated by the mobilization of the army are to be discussed at an extraordinary session of the sobranje, summoned to meet on Saturday.

TO LEAVE UNITED STATES.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—A telegram from Sofia states that 15,000 Macedonians are about to return from the United States as volunteer soldiers in the expected Balkan war.

CLASS OF 1912 TO GIVE THEATER PARTY

The class of 1912 of the Polytechnic Business College of Los Angeles will give a box party at the Orpheum Theater Saturday evening, October 5. Committees have been appointed to take charge of the affair, which promises to be a big success. The party is in the nature of a stag affair and already a large number of prominent business men have signified their intention of being present.

Right W. Smith, one of the members of the 1912 class of graduates, is chairman of the general committee, assisted by other members of the class. A large attendance is expected.

"HE'S GOT THE PUNCH."

JOHNSON SAYS OF T. R. AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Governor Johnson, in his speech here today, continued his attack on the convention system and New York political bosses. Of Governor Wilson's tariff plan the governor said: "I challenge any man to state what the Democratic candidate would do and how he would do it."

Summing up a tribute to Colonel Roosevelt, the governor said: "He's got the punch, my friends."

OPEN FIGHT FOR SUFFRAGE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 2.—Women mounted dry goods boxes and chairs last night in Kansas City, Kan., and talked for "votes for women." All along the main thoroughfares crowds assembled to hear the speakers. Twelve of them were in the safe. It was the opening of the campaign in Kansas for an amendment to the state constitution giving women the right to vote. The amendment will go to a popular vote in November.

VAULT DOOR STUCK.

SACRAMENTO, October 2.—The inner door of the great safe of the Sacramento Valley Bank and Trust company refused to open for four hours yesterday, and as a result the bank was inconvenienced for use of ready money. There was $200,000 in gold and silver in the safe. The door was opened when the time lock released the bolts, but it took four locksmiths four hours to open the inner door. Nobody knows what caused the trouble.

FOREIGN CHEMISTS ARE ENTERTAINED

The Delegates to International Congress Guests of Oakland.

Oakland's reclaimed waterfront land and Oakland's beautiful hillsides were today tendered the 69 visiting delegates from the International Congress of Applied Chemistry, recently held at New York, who spent practically the entire day on this side of the bay. They were entertained, in part, by a luncheon at the Forum.

It was Dr. David T. Day of the Bureau of Mines and Geological Survey at Washington, conducting the party through the United States, who became an Oakland booster and pleased the Chamber of Commerce members by telling the chemists that they would be able to return here, establish plants on the waterfront and build their homes in the charming residence sections of the city.

The visitors were the guests of the Chamber of Commerce following their arrival on a Key Route train during the forenoon. In automobiles they were taken through the scenic portions of Oakland and through the State University grounds and buildings at Berkeley, where a brief reception was held. After the Forum luncheon, the guests were taken on a special electric car to Richmond, where they visited the Standard Oil plant.

GIVEN WELCOME.

At the luncheon the visitors were greeted by H. C. Capwell, who presided. Following Capwell's welcome, President W. E. Gibson of the Chamber of Commerce, told the visitors that they would be depended upon in future years to help develop this section, either personally or through their influence.

Dr. Day explained that California is the recipient of large gifts from business men, and that the State University is about to be converted into a wonderful manufacturing commonwealth and then told of the opportunities on Oakland's waterfront and of the attractions for those who would make their homes here.

L. Seelenfried, chief chemist of the Standard Oil Company at Richmond, made a brief speech of welcome prior to the departure of the party for the Contra Costa town, with Seelenfried as escort.

Charles A. Vogelsang, representing the Panama-Pacific Exposition Company, made a brief address.

The entertainment committee today was composed of T. M. Ayres, Frank A. Leach Jr., H. K. Jackson and W. W. Keith.

TAFT REPUBLICANS TO MEET OCTOBER 5

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Taft Republicans, comprising the state central committee, will meet here for organization October 5. The executive committee of the Democratic state convention, the electoral nominees and the nominees for Congress will hold a conference here October 4, followed by a meeting of the new state central committee.

EDITOR CASE MAY BE PUT OFF TWO WEEKS

SALFEM, Mass., Oct. 2.—A postponement until October 14 of the trial of Joseph J. Ettor, Aeturo Giovanniutti and Joseph Caruso looked for today when the venire of 350 taleman became almost exhausted without adding material to the jury. The defense asked Judge Quinn to order a postponement rather than to call a new venire forthwith as had been considered. William B. Grosvenor, the seventh man placed today, qualified and took his place with the two jurors selected Monday.

The presence of William D. Hayward, the Lawrence strike leader, in the court room today added to the interest in the case. Previously to the opening of court Hayward and Fred Hazelwood of Spokane, Wash., head of the Lawrence strike, were in the courtroom, conferred in an ante-room with the prisoners.

SCIENTIST STRANGELY LOST.

ST. LOUIS, October 2.—The strange absence of Dr. Lutherford H. H. Yochel, well known bacteriologist, who for nearly three years has not communicated with his wife in St. Louis, has caused great anxiety at the Grand Hotel, where he is known to be. It was said yesterday that he was in New York. His brother said he was supposed to be engaged in research at the Rockefeller Institute. A dispatch from New York states that he is not there.

LOVE LETTERS ARE QUOTED IN COURT

Mrs. Eccleston Declares That Her Affection Was Like That of Others.

Two of the letters introduced as evidence by the plaintiff were written to her when she was in the Morris hospital in Oakland and her husband was in Fresno. They were read, as follows: Fresno, Aug. 11, 1909.

Dear Ben: I am glad you enjoyed the roses. I told you to keep posted and if the flowers got too big to have some sent to you, but I kept forgetting that you had from three to five bunches a day all the time, and finally decided that if I wanted to get in on it that I would have to send them all to you. Sorry you can't have them.

I can hardly wait for the time to come and bring you home. I am so hungry to see you and get so lonely. I can hardly stand it sometimes.

I guess I am of a peculiar temperament—different from most men—and you being away constantly does work on me. That's why I work every night.

With lots of love and kisses, LOUIE.

LITTLE COOING. Another letter from Fresno at the same time read:

Dear Ben: I mailed you a letter today but I thought I would write some more to let you know we are all thinking of you. Oh, so badly. I certainly would like to have you drop in on us and jump up in papa's lap and have a little cooing. Lots of love, LOUIE.

LETTER TO BROTHER. The following letter was from Louie to his brother "Hudson," and was offered by the attorney for Maude Eccleston in support of her charge that her brother-in-law brought about the separation.

Fresno, Aug. 11, 1909.

Dear Hudson: I guess you will call me crazy when you get this letter, but I want you to think it all done for the best, with hopes that the best results will follow.

Maude and I have come to an understanding; that is, I have made some very severe conditions to which Maude has agreed without any hesitancy. Maude is my wife. I took her for better or for worse; we have had "better" and now when the worse presents itself I am going to give her the blues. Let me be finished of us get hardly a wink of sleep.

She confided in me, and with tears flowing like water, asked me to give her another chance and she would make an ideal wife. There is no question of a separation; if I mean I am throwing her out in this cruel world all alone. She is not like some girls, who could get out and make a living. She says she wants me and me alone.

It was 3 a. m. when we finished our conversation and I spent most of the time from then until 10 a. m. thinking. I then decided to do as she asked and wrote out a lot of conditions which she is to sign.

"BRAVE LITTLE WOMAN." I know she must love me or she would not consent to any of them. She loves me in her way, and although it may not be the way my wife should love me, I will consent to comply with what I ask there has to be something in her little body to prompt her to do it. There is lots to say, but writing is a poor way and I will tell you all about it when I see you next. I want you and Ethel, for my sake, to treat Maude as you did before all this came up, and if we can work this thing out, we will be happy. Of course it will take weeks and maybe months for her to fulfill all of them.

No doubt I am unreasonable in what I have asked of her, but I can foresee that what I have asked will be absolutely necessary.

With love, LOUIE.

WRITTEN ON TAG. The conditions referred to by Louie Eccleston in his letter to his brother were the following, written up on the back of a grocery tag and signed by the wife: 1—Do as I say in all matters that may come up.

2—Tell me the truth about everything that I ask me into your confidence and never let the smallest thing go unsaid.

3—Let me see all the letters you write to your sister Alice.

4—Treat me as if I were the stronger of the two, as you say I am and consider that I am the master of the house.

5—Show me by your action and affection that you love me.

6—Let's begin to save money.

7—Show me how to get a regular allowance, but just what you need each month.

8—Treat my relatives as if nothing happened, especially my brother Charles.

The Ecclestons are well known in Fresno and Oakland and their domestic difficulties have been a matter of public record for a year or more. Mrs. Eccleston is a writer and a member of the Missouri Press Association and has been a contributor for the New York Dramatic Mirror and Review.

Girls' Overcoats

$7.50, $8.50, $10 to $15

DRESS A GIRL in one of our convertible collar overcoats, identically the same as those sold to her brothers, and complete the costume with one of our smart tweed or felt hats, and the result should be a boy.

But there is where the subtle differences in tailoring become apparent. Although the same severity of style and the same unyielding straightness of line are adhered to in both cases, the boys' coats appear clumsy on girls; the girls' coats seem effeminate on boys.

Our special line of overcoats for girls is shown in mixtures of every shade of gray, brown and tan men's-wear materials. Many have high buttoning velvet collars, fitting close under the chin. All are exceptional values at their respective prices.

Girls' Sweaters

$2.50 to $6.50

An unusually popular line is offered in high grade galatea, all white, styles with maroon sleeves. These blouses are very dressy in appearance and, being all white, appear cleaner and tidier than those heavily trimmed in colors.

Middy Blouses

$1.75

In the many lines shown here will be found V-neck and button-to-the-chin styles with maroon Norfolk also. Cardinal white, brown, navy and oxford are the favorite colors and the wearing qualities are equal to our best coats for men.

Girls' Fall Hats

To harmonize with the girl's mannish overcoat one of our new tweed or felt hats is most appropriate. Tweeds in Oxford and brown mixtures are splendid values at $1.50 and $2; plain and scratch felts in all colors are offered at $2 and $2.50.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 2.—Catherine Melius of Los Angeles was among the winners in the second round of the national women's golf championship today.

EXPOSED AS MARRIED JUST BEFORE WEDDING

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—Exposed as a married man a few minutes before he was to have been married to Miss Helina Wolcz of 125 Reed street, Frank Gabernich, 35 years old, of Front and McClellan streets, was arrested and held in $1000 bail by Magistrate Hughes for a further hearing today. He is charged with perjury in connection with taking out a license to wed the girl.

A feast had been prepared at the Wolcz home, and a score or more of guests invited. One of the last to arrive was Agnes Fabronius of 850 Tilton street. One look at the prospective bridegroom and the young woman almost fainted. Recovering her composure, she walked to Miss Wolcz, and pointing at Gabernich, said:

"I am married and have a wife and two children in Lithuania. I know, because I was a bridemaid at his wedding." Gabernich fled. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest, and he was found hiding in the basement of a sugar refinery at Water and Reed streets.

CONGRESSMAN WANTS TOWN TO KEEP NAME

AMSTERDAM, N. T., Oct. 2.—Wm. Representative Theroz Akhn returned from Washington following the adjournment of Congress he caused to be erected in a conspicuous place on his premises a large sign, reading: "This is the village of Akhn."

An unidentified person defaced the sign with a coat of black paint. The incident is the outgrowth of a controversy. At the last town election the residents of Akhn's home voted to change the name to Fort Johnson.

This displeased the representative, as the name Akhn was given to the village in honor of his father. He erected the sign as a protest and will endeavor to discover the vandals.

UGLY POLICEMEN ARE IN DEMAND

That's Only Variety That Can Sell Tickets to Charity Ball.

There are only a few ugly or even plain men in the Oakland police force but at the present time these few are in great demand in the department. A fine large policeman with a jaw like the end of the soapbox is a most desired man with a conversation that is not the limit in police talk and a face that is a paragon and full as a moon is a prize beyond price.

There is a reason the reason centers about the sale of tickets for the annual benefit ball to be held at the Willows and Orphans Aid Association of the police department.

Last year the committee dispatched their handsomest men to the various stores and factories about the city with large batches of tickets. The proprietors recognized a good crew and answered liberally. Then they distributed the tickets among their young women assistants.

GIRLS ARE ATTRACTED.

The girls in a candy store, the clerks in several department stores, the girls in a large factory, saw the handsome policeman in brass buttons and business uniform as he walked his beat and entered the building to sell tickets. When the night of the ball arrived, they one and all donned their grandest toggery and went to the ball in the hope of meeting said policeman.

That was a year ago. The girl met not only one handsome officer, but several scores. Since the last police ball the police have been over a score since the last police ball there have been over a score of weddings all growing out of meetings at the dance.

This year the committee started to send out their handsomest men. They went to department stores and candy shops and factories they had visited a year before. The proprietors of the stores met them with stern denial and a polite invitation to depart.

"What's the matter then?" demanded the patrolman.

"Do you want to put me out of business?" demanded the proprietor of the department store. "Last year I bought 50 tickets from you and distributed them among the girls. They all went wild, and within six months I had lost eight of my best girls. Sure, they all got married, and now they are happy wives. We have two of the weddings in my home."

"But mix on this kind of stuff again I suppose if I bought some more tickets, I'd lose the rest of my assistants and the best workers and prettiest ones at last."

SEEK HOMELY MEN

The patrolman retired discomfited. He reported to the committee. A special meeting was held to consider the matter, and it was decided that hereafter only homely men will be sent out on the ticket selling brigade, with instructions to inform the proprietors of stores that they are the handsomest men left in the department unmarried. It is estimated that the fear of losing more girls will be obviated, and that the stores will purchase tickets as heretofore.

The annual ball this year will be held October 18 in Piedmont pavilion. It is proposed to sell all former officers and to make the ball a gigantic success.

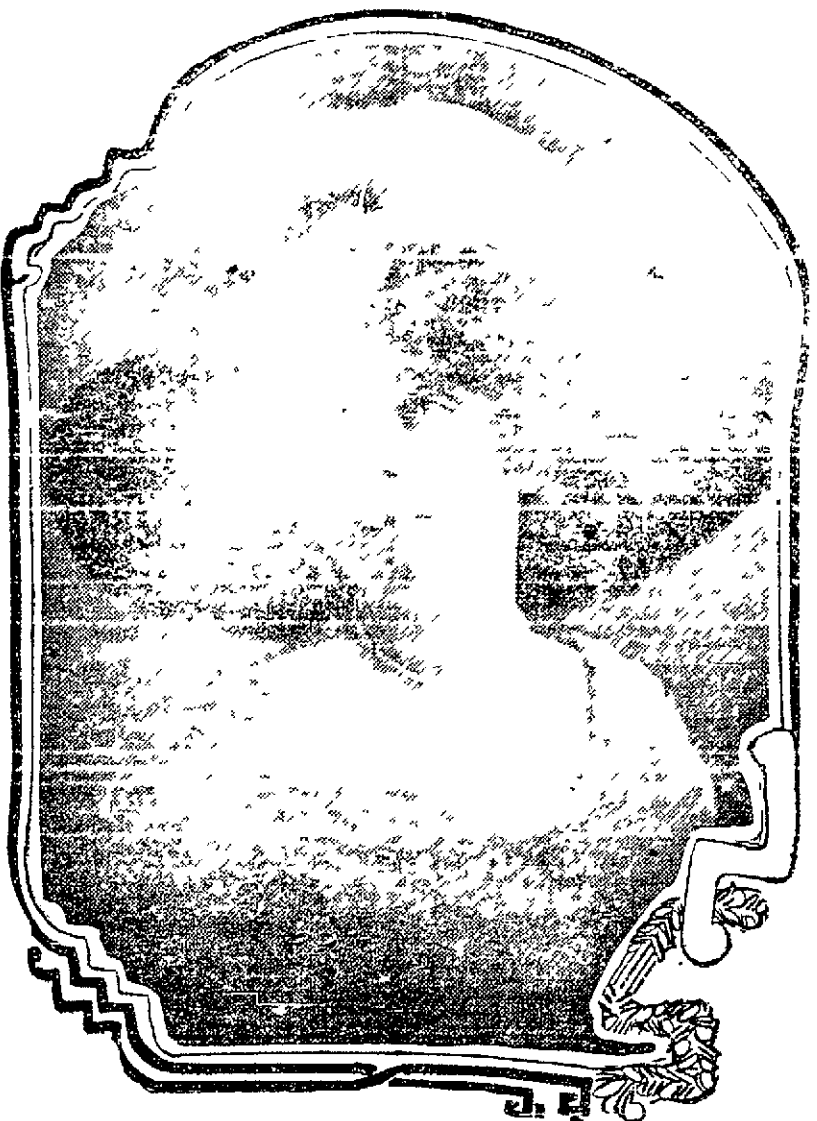

DONOHUE TO FIGHT IN HIGHEST COURTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Former Fire Commissioner J. J. Donohue, who was removed by Mayor Rolph for malfeasance in office, has announced his intention of filing a petition with the Superior Court for a writ of review in his case. Attorney Chynoweth, representing Donohue, stated that the case would be carried to the Supreme Court if necessary. The appeal is based on a statement made by the mayor that Donohue was not guilty of dishonesty but of a technical violation in the administration of his office. The attorney asserts that many other city officials technically violate the law in conducting their official affairs.

DRIVER OF AUTO IS SUED FOR $10,000

Peter J. Kolich and his wife, Louise E. Kolich, have begun suit in the Superior Court for $10,000 damages from J. A. Olsen and the latter's wife, as the result of a collision between the defendant's automobile and the plaintiff's horse and buggy, October 8, 1911. The complaint recites that the defendants were driving for the occasion and that the Kolichs were injured to such an extent that $10,000 would be the proper recompense.

EMITGOUR ASSEMBLY BALL BRILLIANT SOCIETY AFFAIR

MRS. F. W. LAUFER, A PATRONESS AT THE EMITGOUR ASSEMBLY BALL HELD LAST EVENING

The Emitgour Assembly held its 10th ball of the season last evening at Maple hall more than 400 prominent society folk being present. The hall had been effectively decorated for the occasion with four balls made of soda-water forms and in the center of the hall was a large cluster of palms taking no small part in the coolness and beauty of the scene. The committee in charge included George H. Coolidge, floor manager, assisted by Kenneth Millican, F. W. Laufer, William Westphal and Charles Lee.

The patronesses of the affair are Mrs. George H. Coolidge, Mrs. William Westphal and Mrs. F. W. Laufer.

RESORTS ESCAPE LAW AS 'HOTELS' FOUR MEN FIGURE IN RUNAWAY CASE

Great Highway Places May Keep Open All Night, Is Ruling.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—According to an opinion rendered the police commissioners by District Attorney Fickert today, certain resorts on the Great Highway may conduct their business all night long, as they have been accustomed in the past. In the case of Carl Leonhardt, proprietor of the Casino, the police commission attempted to close the resort for alleged violations of the law. Fickert pointed out the opinion of Judge Deasy, in which he ruled that a hotel with 16 or more rooms and a register for guests could remain open all night, and if they held a liquor license, they would be privileged to serve drinks.

Owing to the fact that Theodore Roche, duly appointed police commissioner, is a very busy man during the day, the police commissioners will probably hold their last day meeting tomorrow afternoon. Hereafter it is planned that the commissioners shall meet at night.

Girls Complain Bitterly at Being Taken to Detention Home.

Five days of adventure, in which at least four men with motorcycles figured, were not enough for Martha Dilling, aged 16 years, and Ruth Cunningham, aged 14 years, and when the two girls were captured in Hayward last night by Constable A. J. Rammage they complained bitterly at being turned over to the Detention home. The girls have been sought by their parents since Friday.

As a result of the adventures of the two girls one of the men whom they made friends with in their extensive travels may face a statutory charge of having committed a felony. If the confession made by 14-year-old Ruth Cunningham is true. The other girl has no grounds for legal redress, as she is over 16 years of age.

The question as to whether arrests shall be made is in the hands of the probation officer, as the Oakland police have dropped the investigation because the alleged offense was committed on the road between Niles and San Jose and would be within the jurisdiction of that county. The mother of the Cunningham girl will take up the question of possible prosecution with the probation officials. R. Murphy of Hayward is named by the Cunningham girl.

OBTAINS CONFESSION.

Inspector T. J. Flynn obtained the following confession of their adventures from the girls.

With Albert Whitmarsh, 21, and Walter Whitmarsh, on two motorcycles, the girls left Alameda Friday noon, and rode to Niles, returning at 6 the same evening. The girls were afraid to go home and started to walk to Hayward. They slept on the road. At Hayward they met George H. Harrison and B. Murphy of that city, and were taken to breakfast by their two friends.

At Hayward they met the girls on their motorcycles, thence to Niles and later to San Jose, returning Sunday morning about 3 o'clock to San Leandro, where the two men left the girls.

The girls then walked to Tracy and Sunday night went to Stockton, where they stayed at a hotel, taking the train Tuesday morning. At Hayward they obtained work in a pickle factory, where they were arrested by Constable Rammage.

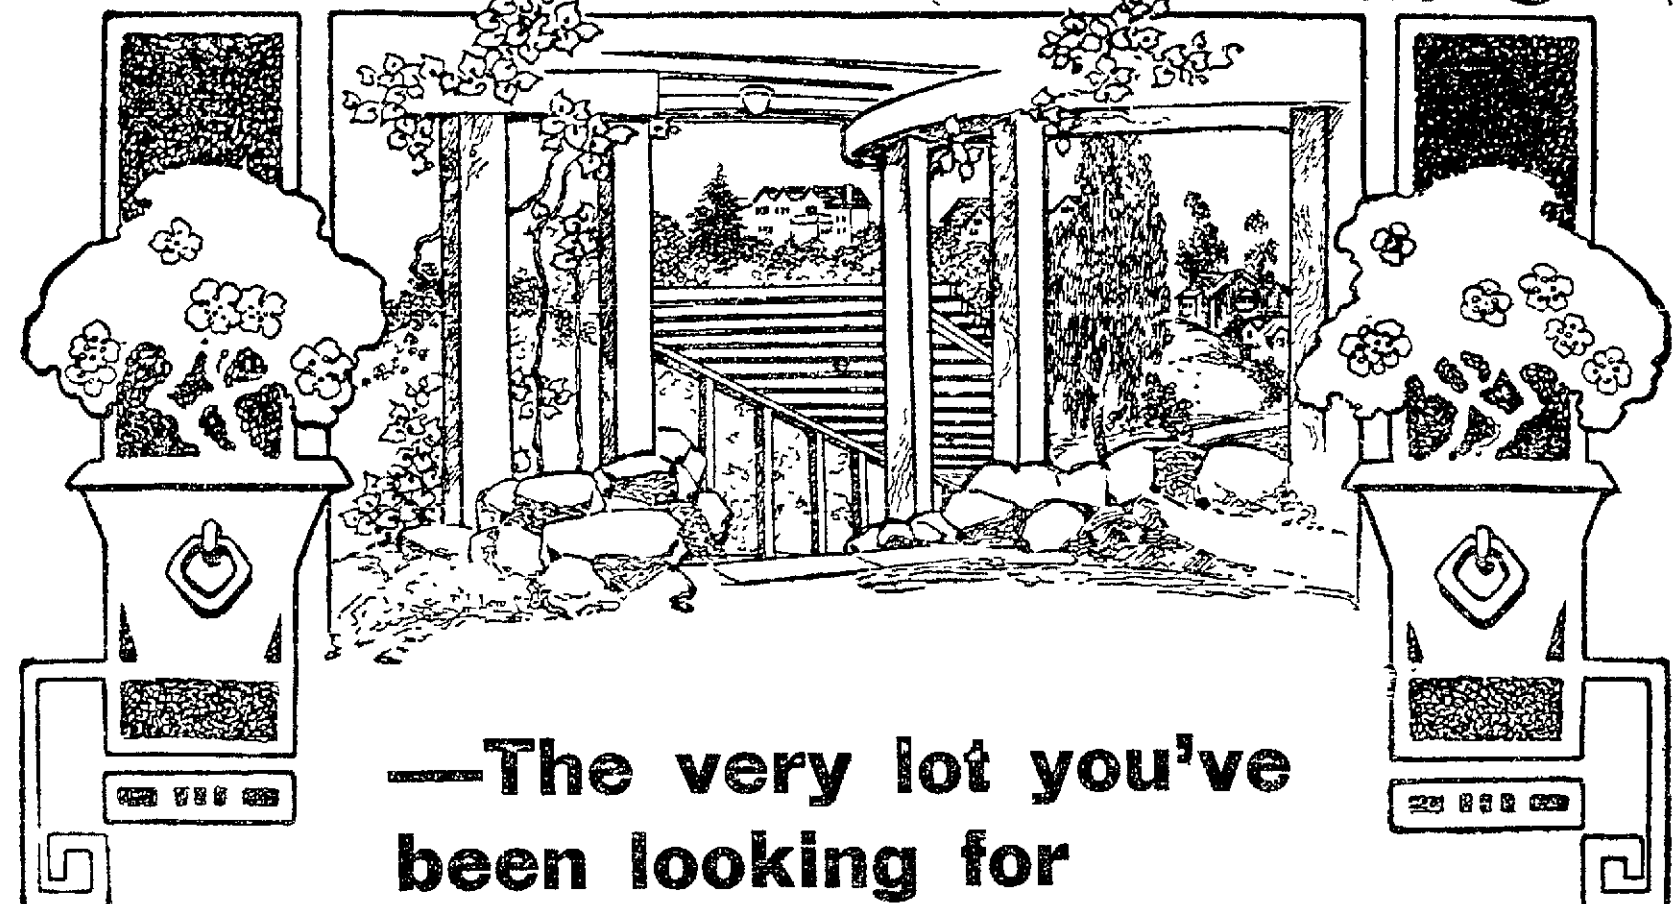

KILLED BY TRAIN.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 2.—P. W. Fisher, formerly employed by the Southern Pacific Company who was struck by Sunday died at the County hospital yesterday. At the time of his death Fisher was in the employ of the General Chemical Works at Peyton. The dead man was a native of Virginia and 26 years of age.

INJURED IN COLLISION.

VALLEJO, Oct. 2.—In a collision between a bicycle and a trolley wagon last night at Park Gardner was seriously injured and a man in the trolley was also injured. The man in the trolley was taken to the hospital and the man on the bicycle was taken to the hospital. The trolley was damaged and crashed into Gardner.

ARDSLEY HEIGHTS

—The very lot you've been looking for

Grand Opening Sunday Next Make Reservations Now

"I've been looking for a southwest corner with a marine view for months," said a woman in our offices yesterday, "and I simply cannot find anything at a price within my means that suits my ideas."

There are scores of people in the same predicament, and if you are one of those looking for some particular kind of lot we want you to read this advertisement.

Ardsey Heights is to be formally opened to the public Sunday next and within the bounds of this beautiful piece of land are to be found

- 2 beautiful N. E. corners passed by the street car.
  - 2 fine S. E. corners, one and two blocks from car.
  - 1 magnificent corner pointing south and facing both east and west.
  - 9 splendid inside lots facing north.
  - 8 well elevated, scenic lots facing south.
  - 2 double frontage lots (for garage entrance in rear).
  - 4 fine wide inside lots facing S. W.
  - 1 big corner with 128 feet of S. W. frontage.
- These lots are inexpensive; there is nothing to equal them at the price in Piedmont, Oakland or Berkeley. They're exactly 11 minutes from 12th and Broadway by street car without transfer.

Every lot is scenic and yet easy to build upon. There will be no heavy grading necessary for the house builder, no expensive filling in, no need for hauling garden soil, etc.

Your neighbors will all build beautiful homes, for you are protected by building restrictions; they'll all have pretty gardens, for the soil is rich and everything grows, and your property will increase in value because improvements are inevitable.

We are not going to sell Ardsley Heights to out-of-town speculators who never build or improve; we are not going to allow a group of contractors to come in and put up great rows of "contractors' houses." We want every buyer to be a home builder and to live in the house he builds.

You can now buy these lots at first hand prices—six months from now you'll be called upon to pay someone else a profit; today you get your lot direct from the subdividing company, which means a saving of at least $300 on every lot.

Now, then, isn't this just exactly the sort of a proposition you've been looking for?

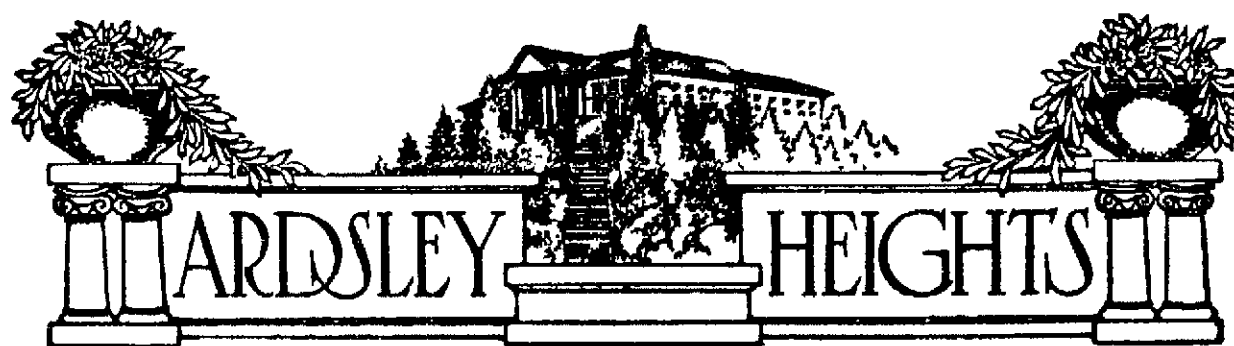

11 Minutes from 12th and Broadway

If you want to look at Ardsley Heights call at our office and a salaried salesman will take you out to see it. No commission men to bother you when you do business with the Syndicate; no one persuaded to buy against their will at this office; we simply show the property, and then if you wish a lot you can come in and get it whenever you are ready.

Terms 10% down and about seven years to pay the balance.

2 NEW DIRECTORS ON VULCAN BOARD

H. C. Capwell and J. Y. Eccleston Chosen by Insurance Company.

Adding to its already imposing list of directors the names of Cashier James Y. Eccleston of the Oakland Bank of Savings, and President H. C. Capwell of the Security Bank & Trust company, the Vulcan Fire Insurance company entrenched itself more strongly than ever in the ranks of local enterprises at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon.

Considerable interest was manifested in the meeting especially as to the first operating report which the company has made. This latter showed that since July 1st 1912 when the Vulcan opened for business it has paid operating expenses, complied with the requirements of the insurance laws as to addition to its reserve and made a profit.

The report of the President, Tom C. Grant, was favorably received by the stockholders and he said that the next report of directors resulted in the retention of the old members with the exception of Messrs. Clay and Steele who were succeeded by Eccleston and Capwell.

The case is a rather old one, having occurred some time ago. It was a case of a man named Rockford who was accused of striking a man named Gunzinger with a hammer. The case was introduced as evidence.

BURGLAR GIVEN 9-YEAR-SENTENCE

The Plea of Convicted Man for Clemency Is of No Avail.

Declaring that the man who entered another's house in the night for the purpose of robbery committed an offense which admitted of no other but punishment than incarceration in a state prison, Superior Judge Ellsworth sentenced John Caberas to nine years in Folsom prison. The prisoner was arrested for looting a rooming house at 2nd and Broadway. He was given an opportunity to plead guilty and throw himself on the clemency of the court, but demanded a jury trial. The jury returned a verdict of guilty as charged, and the result was that the court meted out a penalty commensurate with the crime. Caberas will start upon his trip to the penitentiary tomorrow morning.

DIVORCE GRANTED

An intensive story of divorce was granted today in the Superior Court to Nell Barry from her husband, James W. Barry, on the ground of desertion and failure to support. James Barry was granted an ex parte decree from his wife, Nell Barry, on the ground of desertion.

$28,000 Worth of Teeth

"The value of a sound tooth is beyond computation. Particularly is this true if the owner of the tooth be in the prime of life or young. If the writer were called upon as a juror to estimate the value of sound teeth he would place the valuation at not less than $1000 per tooth, except the wisdom teeth, which are seldom normally developed. Thus, estimating the four wisdom teeth, the individual blessed with a perfect upper and lower set of fourteen teeth each carries around in his oral cavity about $28,000 worth of enamel and dentine."

—From "Tooths," M. D.

If you own a building worth $28,000, or even $5000, you would take mighty good care of it, so that it would not depreciate in value. You wouldn't wait until it was beyond repair before you started in to fix it up. You know very well that you would not. Why, then, don't you keep it in good condition?

Now, why don't you take the same interest in your teeth? They are worth it, since their value cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

The thing that causes a great many people to neglect their teeth is the dread of pain. If that is the trouble in your case, then by all means come to me and let me show you how I execute all work on the teeth without causing the least bit of pain or discomfort.

My new discovery, Terysthesia, has banished the tortures of toothache forever. It enables me to prepare, fill, crown, treat, regulate and extract teeth with complete freedom from pain. Terysthesia is a yearning, brilliant treatment deadens the nerve in a sensitive tooth so that the patient does not feel even a twinge of pain while the tooth is being fixed. My procedure contains no cocaine or other poisons. It is absolutely harmless, and acts the same in every instance. It does not hurt the heart or nerves, neither does it injure the gums.

The term "painless dentistry" is as old as the dental profession itself, but I am the first and only man in the world who has actually succeeded in making all operations in dentistry positively painless.

No matter how skeptical you may be, I am ready to prove to you that I do what I claim. Read this letter from a patient who has been convinced:

San Francisco, Dec. 12, 1911.

Dear Dr. Terry:

The work you did on my teeth is the most satisfactory I have ever had done. I have some more work to be done soon, I believe, and to the credit of your process, I must say that I have no unpleasant anticipations whatever. In fact, my previous visits to your office for treatment were rather pleasant and restful—something akin to the old lady's startling version of church "a nice place to sit down." Trusting that many others will be as fortunate as I in finding you, I am, yours very truly,

HUMAN LIFE IS NATIONAL ASSET

New Yorker Declares We Are Burning Candle at Both Ends.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 2.—E. E. Rittenhouse of New York, speaking before the National Conservation Congress today on the subject of "Human Life as a National Asset," declared that the conservation of human life should be the paramount issue of the American people.

Rittenhouse said in part:

"The first item in humanity's bill of rights is the right to live. To protect human life from needless destruction is the primary purpose of organized society."

"We are not only reducing the fertility of our race and also shortening the span of life, but we are permitting at least 500,000 American lives to be destroyed annually which we could save by the application of simple and well-known sanitary and other precautions."

"This is our real race suicide problem."

"We have made progress in preventing human waste but it has been confined almost wholly to contagious or infectious diseases. At the same time, the death rate from the degenerative diseases of middle life and old age against which we have waged no war, has steadily increased."

"We are still burning the candle at both ends—faster at one end and faster at the other."

"We may felicitate ourselves upon all of our past achievements, and at the same time recognize the excessive life waste that is still going on, and also recognize that evidences are multiplying of race deterioration, and of our growing contempt for the value and sacredness of human life."

UP TO PEOPLE.

"These conditions will not be arrested automatically. The problem will not solve itself. The people alone can check this continuing waste of national efficiency and vitality. Greater efforts must be made to impress them with the facts and to arouse them to more effective action."

"The economic loss is stupendous, but it is insignificant compared to the misery, suffering, poverty, immorality and crime which result from the needless sickness and premature death from which the nation is now suffering."

"The public health service, local and national, must lead in this life-saving work."

"It is the primary function of the government to protect the lives of the people from needless destruction; but it takes time and money to educate the public and to run health departments."

"In the last analysis, the war against preventable disease is a struggle between the dollar and the death rate."

"Most of our communities prefer a high death rate to a slight increase in the tax rate."

"There isn't an adequately financed health department in the country."

"Many towns have none at all, some of them are small cities."

"Others have health boards without funds, others a mere perfunctory health service."

"Some have advanced; many are efficient, but there isn't a city in the Union where the health ordinances are properly enforced, chiefly because of lack of funds."

"In neglecting our public health service our people are tritling with a most solemn duty."

"Everybody should rally to the support of the health service and join in the educational campaign for lack of funds."

"The National Conservation Congress is especially adapted to lead in this educational work."

"Human life is our paramount asset. Its conservation should be your paramount issue."

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—In the hope that hearing the stories of wrecked homes might change their decision to be married, young John W. Mills took his son, William, 15 years old, known familiarly as "Billy," by his friends, and Nora Farrell, 17, the boy's sweetheart, into Judge Newcomer's court to listen to the woes and woees resulting from domestic differences.

For two hours the two listened, but the stories failed to have any effect.

"These stories don't scare me if they don't you," "Billy," said to his sweetheart.

"I don't want to wait," replied Nora. Young Mills interrupted the hearing of an abandonment suit long enough to interview Judge Newcomer.

The judge smiled and the ceremony followed.

"I had no objection to their being married, but I wanted them to look closely before they leaped," the father told the court.

PROF. T. S. C. LOWE DYING IN PASADENA

PASADENA, Oct. 2.—Professor Thaddeus S. C. Lowe, inventor of the Mount Lowe Railway, inventor of water gas and pioneer aeronaut, is near death here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. L. Wright.

Professor Lowe arrived in this city Monday from Norristown, Pa., and was conveyed to the home of Mrs. Wright in an ambulance. He went East apparently in good health, but broke down on the way back and despaired of ever seeing his relatives again. He rallied a few hours before the train arrived here.

Professor Lowe won fame as a balloonist during the Civil War, being the first to ascend in a dirigible. He was the first aeronaut attached to the United States army. Mount Lowe is named after him.

Reports from the bedside are to the effect that Professor Lowe, who is 80 years old, is in a precarious condition and the end is expected at any time.

TRANSFER LITIGATION TO JUDGE WELLS' COURT

Following a series of affidavits intimating prejudice on the part of Superior Judge William H. Waste, the litigation involving the East Side Hardware Company, W. S. Britt, James K. Houck, C. E. Kinard and Howard K. James, has been transferred to the department presided over by Judge William S. Wells.

The case is one involving the control of the East Side Hardware Company, which was founded by Britt and incorporated by James. Britt later maintained that James was trying to freeze him out of the concern and obtained an injunction to keep him out.

James disregarded the injunction and was fined. Kinard purchased some of the stock and then filed suits of intervention as a stockholder to have some of the earlier transfers set aside. Judge Wells has set all the cases for trial November 24.

GIANT WATERMELON GLADDENS WILSON

SEA GIRT, N. J., Oct. 2.—The last day of Governor Wilson's stay at the Sea Girt cottage was made memorable by the receipt of a crate containing a giant watermelon from the governor's home state, Virginia. When the watermelon was opened, it was found to contain a single seedling.

The seedling was being raised by a portrait of Governor Wilson on one side of the melon with the legend "A winner," done in accomplished jackknife lettering beneath it.

Sir Abbas is recognized throughout the Orient as the head of a new world religion.

PROTEST AGAINST FARM'S REMOVAL

Merchants of Hayward Plan Mass Meeting; Petitions to eB Circulated.

HAYWARD, Oct. 2.—A concerted effort is to be made to counteract the proposed recommendation to be made to the state legislature by the Fish and Game Commission that the State game farm near here be immediately removed. The merchants of the town are preparing to secure the co-operation of the local organizations to protest against the removal of the game farm.

A monster mass meeting will be held when petitions asking that the farm be kept in its present location will be circulated for signatures. Agents will then be employed to take the petitions through the city and residential district to secure additional names. The plan is to then present the petitions to Governor Hiram Johnson.

The Hayward Chamber of Commerce has already taken a definite stand in the matter and will use its influence in defeating the recommendation of the commission. Other chambers and commercial bodies throughout the county will be appealed to and asked to send a protest to the governor. It is contended by the local interests that the game farm is in every way successful and is a benefit to the entire county. A report submitted a few days ago by the officials at the preserve and is lined up with the business thousands of game birds of different varieties are shipped to every part of the State every few months. William N. Danks, superintendent of the farm, is enthusiastic over the success of the preserve and is lined up with the business men of this place.

Those who have steadily fought the attitude of the Fish and Game Commission in its efforts to abolish the preserve say that the only reason for removing it to Folsom, where it could be worked by convict labor, is a political one.

AID SOCIETY TO PLAY WHIST FOR CHARITY

Branch No. 1 of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society will hold its first card party of the season this evening at St. Mary's hall on Eighth and Grove streets. The proceeds of the affair will be devoted to buying new material for sewing the report of the ladies each Friday afternoon for the purpose of making garments for the children who come into their care from the juvenile court. Should the affair prove a success, the ladies will hold one each month during the season. Miss Katherine Maher and Mrs. Albert Smith are in charge of the arrangements.

The branch held an evening meeting Monday night for the purpose of transacting business and also of listening to the report of the delegates to the grand convention held recently at Santa Maria del Mar. The delegates included Mrs. James Kelley, vice president; Mrs. W. T. Morley, president; Mrs. Peter Cronin and James Garvin. The branch is the parent society of the organization.

SHIPS TONS OF PRUNES

NAPA, October 2.—The Napa Fruit company has made a new departure for this part of the state when it started a shipment of 2000 tons of dried prunes to Hamour, Germany.

The shipment started Monday by boat and will be transferred at San Francisco to a ship that will take it to the city of its destination.

SAVES LIFE WHEN AUTO TAKES DROP

Driver Grasps Dangling Scantling as Car Plunges Into Ditch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—To have his automobile drop from under him into a 25-foot excavation while he sat in it, was a scary experience for Herman S. Welch shortly after noon yesterday.

Welch was driving a five-passenger car belonging to Arthur W. Co., printer of 235 Clay street. Welch is secretary of the concern.

Headed on Market street, between Sansome and Montgomery, Welch felt his wheel slip, and without warning his car skidded through a wooden fence and went crashing over the edge of the big sewer excavation.

"I made a quick grab for that little scantling," said Welch. "The car pitched into the hole, but I managed to hang on and get my legs free of the wheel and it fell. Then I worked hand over hand to safety."

The car turned turtle and landed on its top, crushing the wooden parts and fenders like eggshells. Owing to the nature of its position, wedged under the heavy members, it was impossible to extricate the auto without machinery.

Beyond surprise and a lacerated pair of hands, Welch was uninjured. He remained in the vicinity of his car for two hours, peering into the hole. There were no other passengers in the machine. Welch lives at 414 Santa Rita street, Oakland.

EXPOSITION STAMPS OF ARTISTIC DESIGN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2. The chief for the new stamps to commemorate the Panama-Pacific Exposition have been completed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and will be submitted today to Postmaster-General Hitchcock for his approval.

Director Ralph of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing said today the designs are the most artistic ever turned out by the bureau. The 1-cent design bears a likeness to Balboa, discoverer of the Pacific. The 5-cent design represents the Golden Gate at San Francisco. The design of San Francisco bay adorns the 10-cent design.

The stamps will be uniform in size, oblong in shape, one inch by one inch and a quarter. Printing of the stamps will begin the first part of November.

MANUEL TELLS PORTUGAL HE STILL HAS HOPES

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Former King Manuel of Portugal yesterday gave his last fight for consumption in Portugal. The statement is a thousand words long and it written around the former King's denial of the report that he has abandoned his own cause. The statement also denies that he is a political man who has been voluntarily served since his fight for his lost throne or his political work.

In part he says: "I cannot leave these stories unrefuted, and I repudiate them. The false reports are profoundly injurious to my character as a man, my personality as a Portuguese and my honor as a King."

Manuel goes on to say that he will always remain at his post of duty. Monarchism is not dead, and Portugal is dominated only by terrorism, which is the republic's sole force.

Where Reform Stopped Short.

The Sacramento Bee criticizes the if in this statement made by Woodrow Wilson in a recent speech:

"There have been courts in the United States that were controlled by private interests. There have been Supreme courts in our States at which men without privilege could not get justice. There have been corrupt judges; there have been controlled judges. There have been judges who acted as other men's servants and not as the servants of The People. And there can be no moral objection to removing such men from public service."

"If—mark you, I say 'if'—at one time the Southern Pacific Railway owned the Supreme Court of the State of California, what was the trouble? Would you remedy it by recalling the judges of the Supreme Court of California? Not so long as the Southern Pacific Railroad could substitute others for them. You wouldn't be cutting deep enough. Where you want to go is to the seat of authority. Where you want to go is the process by which those judges are picked out."

The Bee trifles with the facts of history. Is not Governor Wilson justified in using the qualifying if by the course pursued by men who had the judicial recall engrafted on the Constitution of California. They said the recall was necessary to get rid of judges who were either corrupt or subservient to corporate interests. They mentioned names. They openly proclaimed that the recall was aimed at certain members of the Supreme Court.

Those judges are still sitting on the bench. No attempt has ever been made to recall them. The recall has never been invoked to remove any Superior or Supreme judge in the State. The judiciary stands as it did before the adoption of the recall. If there were corrupt judges on the bench then they are there yet. If what the recall advocates said was true, they have knowingly permitted unfit men to continue in the exercise of judicial functions which had been prostituted. After getting the remedy they demanded they have neglected to use it.

They either made false charges when the recall amendment was pending or they have proved recalcitrant to their professions. Every one of the judges they marked for destruction is still in office. None of them has ever been disturbed. Why is not Woodrow Wilson justified in qualifying with an if the charges brought against the judiciary of California? Would the Bee have him repeat those charges as facts without knowing whether they are true or false, and in the face of the record made by those who first promulgated them?

Your if is, indeed, a great thing. It is the qualification that every honest and truthful man will employ in repeating scandalous and defamatory charges made by others who have failed to substantiate their statements, and who, by neglecting to press their charges when an opportunity was presented, furnished negative proof that they had no evidence to support the accusations they had brought.

The men responsible for the adoption of the judicial recall told the people that it was to be used to rid the bench of judges who owed their elevation to the Southern Pacific.

They claimed to have kicked the Southern Pacific out of politics, but they have left the alleged Southern Pacific judges sitting on the bench. If the Southern Pacific has been kicked out of politics, it is to be noted that the new bosses have retained in their service a large number of the old political field hands who formerly took orders from the old machine. The machine has changed masters, but not its character. The politics it does has a new brand, but the quality of the goods has not changed—if anything, it is worse than it used to be. The devil may be discharged, but his imps are still doing business in the same old way.

The Ventura Free Press accuses Republicans who propose to vote for Wilson of deserting the Republican party. What it chooses to call the Republican party is the Progressive party. It is no more Republican than the Democratic party. Thanks to the thrifty and honest gentlemen who are managing Roosevelt's campaign in this State, the Republicans have no candidate of their own to vote for. They have been cheated out of their party name and their candidates for electors excluded from the official ballot. If they vote at all they must vote for the candidate of some other party. There is no reason why they should vote for Roosevelt. He advised and commended the job which defrauded the Republican voters of their rights. Our Ventura contemporary does not seem to understand that resentment at injury and wrong often prompts men to do things they would not dream of doing otherwise. Certainly the Roosevelt ticket has no claim on the loyalty of Republican voters. Quite the reverse.

Harriman and Pardee.

Our old friend George C. Pardee has been caught in the drag-net of investigation—whiskers, opera hat, sore toe and all. It appears now that he was recommended for a place in Roosevelt's cabinet by no less a person than E. H. Harriman. Roosevelt preferred Victor H. Metcalf, however, and the good offices of his great and good friend Harriman did not avail Pardee much. Harriman recommended him, but Roosevelt turned him down. Now Pardee is a candidate for elector on the Roosevelt ticket, and anathematizes the Southern Pacific every time he bows in adoration of the Bull Moose. Harriman saved him from defeat the first time he ran for Governor, and subsequently tried to get him a place in the Cabinet. But Roosevelt preferred Metcalf, and Pardee lauds Roosevelt. Harriman tried to help him, and he reviles Harriman and accuses Metcalf of being Harriman's protegee. Still the doctor is true to himself, even if he is true to nobody else.

THE TRIBUNE received an advance copy of the Standard Oil brief to be printed in Collier's Weekly, but as it was not offered as an advertisement we naturally declined to publish it. The Standard Oil Company is rich enough to pay for its advertising, and other journals are not compensated by the rewards given Collier's Weekly. Charging William R. Hearst with forgery is not the answer that should be made to letters he has published over the signatures of John D. Archbold and men prominent in public life. The law of libel should have been invoked. And why have the men terrified remained so long silent under the imputations cast upon them?

Glavis in the role of tent for timber barons is a fine example of the humbug political conservationist. One would think the coal land claimants of Alaska did not know how to handle him. Possibly he was too expensive a proposition. Still, the Shasta lumbermen seem to have had no trouble in enlisting his services in behalf of their efforts to have their applications for patents to timber lands given preferential consideration by the Interior Department.

WOULD YOU SWAP HORSES?

—ST. LOUIS TIMES.

Roosevelt's Relations With Harriman.

The Roosevelt-Harriman correspondence submitted to the Clapp committee reveals an extraordinary intimacy between the railroad magnate and the President. It does not shed any direct light on the dispute between the Colonel and Harriman relative to the campaign fund raised by the latter in 1904, but it does show that Roosevelt was in constant consultation with the railroad king relative to appointments and to suggestions made to Congress by the executive.

A letter from President Roosevelt, October 2, 1904, proposed that Harriman come to Washington to visit him. Succeeding letters showed Harriman did not find it convenient and that on October 9 President Roosevelt wrote:

"There is no hurry about my seeing you, for the only thing that could be pressing—that is, the financial situation—is not so at present. * * * Any time you come down this winter will do."

The "financial situation" clearly refers to the Presidential campaign then in progress. It was later in the month of October that Roosevelt called Harriman to Washington, and, as Harriman declared, asked him to raise money for the Republican National Committee. Harriman did raise the money and paid it over to Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the national committee, although it was understood that it was to repay a loan that the Republican State Committee of New York had made to the national committee. Harriman told his secretary that Roosevelt had asked him to raise money for the campaign. His letter to Mr. Webster contained the statement that Roosevelt had agreed to appoint Chauncey M. Depew Ambassador to France that way might be made for the election of Ex-Governor Frank S. Black to the Senate. Harriman freely discussed appointments to be made in Arizona and California with the President. All through the correspondence reveals a close intimacy which suggests a private understanding that neither Roosevelt nor Harriman cared to trust to paper.

Whether Roosevelt took Harriman's money and then broke his promise is left to conjecture, but there is no room for conjecture about Harriman being a favorite at the White House till some time after Roosevelt was re-elected.

It may be added that Depew was not appointed Ambassador to France and Frank Black did not get to the Senate. It was all framed up to elect Black to succeed Depew, but Roosevelt sent word from Washington that he wanted Depew re-elected, which meant that he had decided not to give him the French Ambassadorship.

The Republican party still lives, though treason may be rampant, and momentarily successful, in California.

IS AMENDING TOO EASY?

Of course San Francisco will cast a big and almost solid vote for the consolidation amendment. It is to the interest of San Francisco to annex Oakland and Berkeley if it can. To the people of the interior the amendment is more or less an abstract proposition. It is a big and difficult work for Oakland to organize state-wide opposition. Too many people look indifferently on what they regard as a local fight. If they vote at all on the amendment they are not disposed to vote for it.

The adoption of amendments is a tendency of the times. The scope of change is so wide that discrimination is difficult. Before long the people will have to face the question of whether it is not too easy to amend the state constitution.

San Francisco will find it easier to carry this amendment than to effect the consolidation plans through mere legislative action.

State legislatures of today hesitate to refuse to submit any amendment for which there is any considerable demand. The community or the element of people most interested in an amendment will vote for it. Unless it is an amendment raising an issue of widespread interest, the people at large are likely to vote for the amendment out of force of habit, or to vote on it at all through lack of interest.

If a measure in the nature of the consolidation amendment came up in the state legislature there would be an open and bitter fight. The opposition would get its points before the public. The legislative proceedings would be watched with interest by all the people. But where an amendment is submitted as a matter of course, and if no active and widespread opposition is aroused, it can be voted into the state constitution by a small minority of the qualified voters.

The time is coming when it will be necessary to provide that a constitutional amendment cannot be adopted save when a considerable portion of the registered voters have expressed themselves on it one way or the other.

The constitution ought to be pliable and subject to the public will. But so long as a small factional vote is allowed to put measures in the state constitution, it will lack that saving permanency and general application which constitutions are designed to serve.—Stockton Record.

OPPORTUNITY

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door,
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.

Wait not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane;
Each right I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped,
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb.
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never bind a moment yet to come.

Though deep its mire, wring not your hands and weep;
I lend my arm to all who say "I can";
No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be again a man.

Dost thou behold thy lost youth all aglaze?
Dost feel from righteous retribution's blow?
Then turn from blotted archives of the past
And find the future's pages white as snow.

Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell;
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven,
Each morning give the wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven.

—Judge Walter Malone.

FRENCH COOKERY NO MORE

No one would believe that the chefs of Paris had "gone stale" if the news came to us upon less credible authority than an expert American boniface. This shattering of a venerable tradition excites a feeling of genuine sadness as if we were told that Jean Crapaud had suddenly become phlegmatic and morose.

The rise and reign of French cookery makes a story as interesting as French achievements on the field, in the forum, or the laboratory, and it is a story of which Frenchmen are almost as proud as they are of their more stirring chronicles. These who were minded to go so far back might learn that when the Italian Catherine de Medici came to France she brought with her the cookery of her native land, and for many a long year there was a struggle—a deadly duel of such a kind that the French school finally secured a supremacy which it has never lost—unless, indeed, this traveler's tale be true and Lohabod must now be written over the name of Brillat-Savarin led all the rest.

How the soul of Riquet must writhe with chagrin—that Riquet who served kings and princes with twenty courses from one on whom his master, the Duc de Richelieu, was confronted by the exigencies of travel! How the heart of every gourmet who has lingered along the boulevards must sicken as he thinks of that cook's bouillabaisse in the New street of the Little Fields, or the roast duck, radiant of its own juices, which gave France a name which extended around the world!

There was something in the very air which seemed to impart skill even to the amateur. The very students in their eyes, they might, acquired a knack of cooking which Frenchmen are almost as proud as they are of their more stirring chronicles. These who were minded to go so far back might learn that when the Italian Catherine de Medici came to France she brought with her the cookery of her native land, and for many a long year there was a struggle—a deadly duel of such a kind that the French school finally secured a supremacy which it has never lost—unless, indeed, this traveler's tale be true and Lohabod must now be written over the name of Brillat-Savarin led all the rest.

San Francisco Woman Tells of Husband's Career With Affinity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—Awarded half of a $50,000 legacy and the custody of their minor child, Mrs. Elva Bear, of San Francisco, yesterday secured a decree of divorce from her husband, Noah P. Bear, on statutory grounds of desertion and a substantial portion of the property.

The divorce was granted in San Francisco on June 20, 1930, and lived happily until Bear was last in New York City, 1931, to secure the money left by a grandfather and after settling the estate he had $50,000. He then, according to his wife, became infatuated with another woman and traveled about the country, representing her as his wife. Mrs. Bear declares that she traced her husband by hotel registers in nearly every city on the coast from San Francisco to Seattle, and that finally she brought suit for divorce.

Mrs. Bear says her husband had gone to Salt Lake City with his woman companion and there squandered all his half of the legacy. Bear's companion then was reported to have committed suicide and Bear was placed under arrest. His wife says she had to get out of jail.

Mrs. Bear says since her husband was released from prison he spent the remaining portion of the money she gave him and that he was penniless.

Here's Perfect Babe
MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 2.—To become the world's most perfect woman physically is the future mapped out for Margaret Terry Hudson Grant, 2 years and 2 months old, by her father, Richard Grant, director of truck affairs of the University of Minnesota, and ever since she was three weeks old the baby has been training for the place she is some day to fill.

Systematic exercise under the supervision of her father, who himself was a track star at Yale, and who has "made" many Minnesota athletes, is as much a part of little Margaret's daily life as her food. Grant explained yesterday, while the baby went through her regular course of exercises, that he was a "perfect" mother. Some of the ways in which Margaret differs from other 2-year-olds are these:

Every part of her body is perfectly formed. She has a normal chest measurement of 19 inches and an expanded measurement of 20 1/2 inches, an expansion of nearly two inches. Her biceps muscles measure 5 inches. She could walk when she was 10 months old. She weighs 28 pounds without an ounce of fat on her little body. She can walk up and down flights of stairs and back without stopping. The little girl, though just beginning to talk, delights in her daily physical exercises.

For the Coming Cold Weather

THE pliancy of the flesh, the flexibility of the limbs and the elasticity of the expression are all destroyed by a Siberian atmosphere. When we live in a cold climate we must close our ears to the erroneous theories about the advantage of frigid houses. Sudden changes of temperature and imperfect ventilation are as disastrous to a delicate skin as an unclean diet. Winter is the season of discontent for the languid beauty, whose imperfectly circulating blood congeals at the first touch of frost.

Beauties ranging in this category are happiest in the days of profuse perspiration, which, by the way, is the very cream of cosmetics. Indeed perspiration is one of the most important factors of female loveliness. And if the climate does not induce this bodily function, so necessary to the beauty of the skin and grace of motion, which is the case in some latitudes, it must be substituted by exercise or Turkish baths. All beauty is solely a thing of blood, body and brains or the excellence of the vital, the locomotive and sensory systems. Beauty of motion and posture is more subtle than that of shape and coloring.

To the cultivation of the limbs and muscles by calisthenics and out of door exercises may be ascribed flexibility of outline and movement. All schools of grace and ease make an urgent appeal for flexibility and repose as the basis of beauty in action. Remember, bodily repose should never be confounded with mental sluggishness. A woman is not necessarily stupid because her arms and legs are not flying in all directions.

HENRIETTA E.—A good cold cream, rubbed well into the skin, and then wiped off with a soft cloth before putting on a black makeup, will prevent any harmful results to the skin. It can be taken off in the same way by applying a liberal quantity of the cream, again wiping off with a soft cloth.

FAT LADY.—There are several systems of reduction which profess to give a lithe, slim figure in a short time. Moreover, it can be accomplished, but the result is not desirable. The patient becomes shrunken under the enormous drain upon her vitality, her skin sags in wrinkles, and her face takes on a gaunt look as if she had been ill for weeks. These so-called "cures" frequently deplete the system for years if they do not wreck it altogether.

ADAH H.—It is often hard to break off this habit without a little special help. If you will now and then dip your finger tips into pepper tea, letting it dry on the nails, you will be quickly reminded every time you indulge in the habit, which can soon be overcome. Then, if the growth of the nails is slow, she could walk when she was 10 months old.

ish skin needs the yellowish pinks. For wear when pink is not appropriate, select a color that matches or harmonizes with your eyes or hair. If your eyes are blue, by all means wear blue, but take care in the selections of the blue.

E. H.—Benzoin, if not used too freely, is excellent for the skin. It is frequently added to recipes for cold cream and lotions for its preservative and astringent qualities. To prepare it at home the gum is purchased and added in small bits to pure alcohol until the last bit is dissolved; this is the saturated solution or tincture. A few drops poured into water will make a sort of milk that is refreshing and cooling, but if used too often or too freely it dries out the natural oils in the skin and causes many fine lines. I shall mail you the recipe for an inexpensive French tonic for the eyebrows.

Alternate the hot and cold a half dozen times. Finish with the cold water treatments.

3000 QUIT AT BIG ELY MINES

Charles Moyer Calls Men Out and the Tieup is Complete.

Miners Are Armed; Saloons Closed and Order Prevails.

ELY, Nevada, Oct. 2.—The 3000 employees at the mines of the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company went on strike at 8 o'clock this morning, executing as complete a tie-up as that at Bingham, Utah. A minute after 8 o'clock there was not one bit of work going on here.

Charles H. Moyer, acting for the Western Federation of Miners; A. L. Wilde, for the Steam Shovelmen's Union, and Charles Nicholson, for the machinists, issued the order last night for the men to walk out.

The Ely miners are striking for an increase of 30 cents per day. The shovelmen and machinists are said to have no grievance, but merely are supporting the demands of the miners.

DEMAND INCIDENTAL.
The demands for higher wages, however, are but incidental to that for recognition of the Miners' Union and, according to the union leaders, the walkout is the beginning of a general strike that will spread to Santa Rita, New Mexico, and Ray, Arizona, in order to enforce union recognition. The directors of the Utah Copper Company of Bingham control the Nevada Consolidated and are interested in other properties where strikes are contemplated.

President Moyer came here from Bingham over a week ago, after it had been decided at a conference in Salt Lake City that a general strike was the only way to bring the Bingham operators to terms. The saloons were closed here and order prevails.

Nearly all the foreigners at the copper pit are armed with revolvers and rifles. Some laborers were fired this morning. Two ore trains were moved today and the Nevada Consolidated mill is running, but it is thought that all the men will come out tonight. Every mine is idle.

ELY, Nev., October 2.—The wage scale of miners and smelters in the Ely district prior to October 1 was: Muckers and carmen, $3 a day; miners and timbermen, $3.50; shaft men, $4; and work in wet shafts, $4.50. Minimum wage for skilled men at the concentrator and smelter, $3; common labor, $1.75 to $2.

A raise, which went into effect October 1, brought the pay of muckers and carmen to $3.35; miners and timbermen to $3.75; shaft men $4.25; work in wet shafts $4.75; muckers at concentrator and smelter $3.25 or more; common labor $1.95 to $2.20.

The scale demanded will be $3.50 for muckers and carmen, $4 for miners and timbermen, $4.50 for shaft men, $5 for work in wet shafts, $5.50 minimum wage for skilled mill and smeltermen, $2.25 to $2.50 for common labor.

The wage increase for which the men struck yesterday is, however, only an incident to the demand for recognition of the miners' union here, which would imply similar recognition at Bingham, where the same interests control the strike situation.

Seventy per cent of the stock of the Nevada Consolidated Mining company of Ely is held in the treasury of the Utah Copper company of Bingham. The directors of the Utah Copper company vote this stock in the election of directors of the Nevada Consolidated and receive the dividends upon it. These dividends have formed a considerable part of the income of the Utah Copper company in recent years.

Promptly at 8 o'clock everything at the mines shut down in consequence of the strike decided upon last night. A wheel was turning not a thing doing. Everything was quiet. The county commissioners have closed all saloons in the district.

PARTNER MISSING; BOOKS EXPERTED

Leo J. McCarthy Seeks Trace of Former Business Companion.

Leo J. McCarthy, a clerk in the city street department, has asked the police to find whether B. J. Sweetland, 2725 Octavia street, and part owner with McCarthy in a local motion picture house, left Oakland by any of the overland routes within the past few days. McCarthy believes his partner may have gone to New York and has ordered an experting of his accounts. The police have failed to find any trace of Sweetland.

Mrs. Sweetland informed McCarthy that she believed her husband had left Oakland last Friday. She received a letter from him Saturday saying that he was coming back to live with her.

CIVIC RIGHTS ARE INVADED, SAYS MAYOR WILSON

By J. STITT WILSON, Mayor of Berkeley.

MAYOR WILSON.

I am certainly opposed to annexation of the being achieved, or even aimed at, through any such methods as are at present being followed. I think it is an undemocratic invasion of the civic rights of the people. Personally, I should certainly not permit my own rights to be so invaded. As the mayor of this city I am equally interested that the rights of my neighbors be not so invaded. I am not particularly fearful of the outcome of the present movement. It seems so basically unjust that I feel hopeful those who will have the settling to do will settle the effort with the quickness and dispatch it deserves. But as for me, I shall not allow outsiders to dictate to me what I am to do in my own premises. If I know the temper of my neighbors, they will similarly object. We simply decline to be invaded.

DIRECTORS NAMED ALLEGE BOOKLETS BY CLUB WOMEN TO BE OFFENSIVE

Adelphian Building Association Holds Its Annual Meeting.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 2.—The Adelphian Building Association, which postponed its annual meeting a week on account of the death of Mrs. S. B. During the past two meetings of the board, Mrs. J. Samuel and Mrs. S. B. Connor, died. Mrs. Chapman referred feelingly to the loss of these two splendid women and club workers. The affairs of the Adelphian association were reported to be in a flourishing condition. Plans are being formulated for certain improvements to the property to make the hall more attractive and serviceable for renting purposes.

MARRIAGE FOLLOWS COLLEGE ROMANCE

MEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 2.—When a pretty girl waving a green pennant, the emblem of Dartmouth, looked down from the grandstand into the eyes of one of the baseball players at a Dartmouth college game, two years ago, a romance began.

He is Miss Erving Rawson Day of West Medford; the baseball player, Chester Emerson of Berkeley.

The pretty baseball fan and Emerson became man and wife last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. G. Day, 19 Montemore street.

The Rev. Frank Partridge, pastor of Grace church, officiated. The couple left Boston on a midnight train for Maine, where they will spend their honeymoon before leaving for Berkeley, where they will live.

WHITE SLAVERY SCORED BY HYNES

Assistant District Attorney Wins Verdict of Guilty in Case.

A terrific exhortation of white slavery and the men who live off the earnings of fallen women, was made by Assistant District Attorney W. J. Hynes, preceding a verdict of guilty yesterday afternoon in the case of the People against Louis Gassoumis.

Gassoumis was accused of having secured a place for a girl named Malda Christine Johnson in a resort on Sixth street maintained by the notorious Julia Mayer. The jury as out only six minutes and took but one ballot.

The jury unanimously rendered a verdict of guilty as charged in the information.

Declaring that white slavery was the scab on the scutcheon of American civilization, the Assistant District Attorney scored Gassoumis mercilessly and inveighed against him as a creature unworthy to be termed a man.

The accusations against Gassoumis were brought under the new statute which is aimed particularly to curb the activities of the white slave traffic and provides a penalty of from one to fourteen years in the state prison for anyone who secures a place for a female person in a house of ill repute, no matter if a person may be willing to enter and may already have been an inmate of another similar place.

The case was heard before Superior Judge John Ellisworth and in the court's instructions to the jury no hint was given for a misunderstanding of the purpose of the legislature was made possible.

Assistant District Attorney Hynes was warmly congratulated late yesterday afternoon on the outcome of the case and the attitude which he assumed in its prosecution. Gassoumis will be sentenced Friday morning.

REFUSE TO ASSESS RAILROAD PROPERTY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—With rendering of a decision by the supreme court today, the property of the San Diego & Arizona Railroad Company, situated in California, will remain unassessed, despite the desire of the corporation to get assessed in the state.

The petition of the company for a writ of mandamus to compel the State Board of Equalization to place a taxation value on the holdings of the line was denied.

The board has refused to assess the land, and roadbed extending from Tempe to the Mexican line on the ground that the line was not in operation. The application for assessment was made in 1909, when the company was in the hands of a receiver.

The supreme court holds that the state commission has no power to alter the assessment made by the board, and that the company's petition for a writ of mandamus to compel the board to assess the property is denied.

OUTCOME WAS NEVER IN DOUBT

Comparative Strength of Two Teams is Shown in Contest.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 2.—The California freshman rugby team easily defeated the St. Mary's College fifteen here yesterday. The final score, 21-0, shows accurately the comparative strength of the two teams. The freshmen showed the best form they have displayed this season, and the outcome was never in doubt.

Early in the first half the California scrum worked the ball rapidly toward the St. Mary's goal, where Togni secured from the loose and went over for the first try. Hardy converted.

Score, California 6, St. Mary's 0.

A few moments later the ball was again rushed by open loose play to the visitor's line, where St. Mary's was forced to save behind her own goal posts.

This delay in the impending scrum was only temporary, however, for the babies again brought the play within striking distance of the goal.

Within three minutes of the start of the half Gassoumis scored, Hardy once more converting. Score, California 10, St. Mary's 0.

Play continued in mid-field for a short time, until a series of passing rushes among the freshman backs resulted in a try by Hynes. No conversion followed. Score, California 13, St. Mary's 0.

The second half was a repetition of the first. The ball was always in St. Mary's territory, and only once did the play come within 25-yards of the California goal line.

The work of the freshman backfield showed early results. Within three minutes of the start of the half Gassoumis scored, Hardy once more converting. Final score, California 21, St. Mary's 0.

The lineup follows: California freshmen—King, Edinger, Buckner, Hardy, Waltz, Gay, Fish, Grimes, forwards; Miller, half; Witter, scrum; first five-eighths; Togni, full; second five-eighths; Gassoumis, fullback.

St. Mary's—Hatt, Payne, Pappas, Galsbo, Tagnozini, Gaylor, Cragen, Greeley (captain), forwards; Magno, full; second five-eighths; Sullivan, second five-eighths; Reardon, fullback.

Referee, H. H. Pflieger.

ELIMINATION OF NEEDLESS EXPENSE IS PROPOSED

Scheme of Tax Association Calls for the Consolidation of Duplicated Offices

Consolidation of public offices duplicated in the county government and in that of many of the cities and towns of Alameda county, in the interests of economy, to be effected by a federation of cities and towns under a new county charter, will be considered at an important meeting of the executive committee of the Tax Association of Alameda County, which convenes here today.

The creation of a closer federation of cities and towns and the elimination of needless expense due to duplication of administrative machinery are sought.

Under the scheme which is being considered by the Tax Association the doubling and tripling of legislative and administrative offices without corresponding increase in efficiency and service will be done away with, but each city and town will preserve its right of self government. The only consolidation will be that of offices which are necessarily repeated in the lesser governments and the duties of which could be better performed by a centrally located bureau under the charge of experts.

INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS.
For several months past the Tax Association has been conducting investigations with a view to a study of territory and take into consideration studies made of governmental improvements all over the country. The first suggestions in the matter of the proposed federation which the association had to make were presented at a meeting of the executive committee held on Monday afternoon. A lengthy discussion occurred at that time and another meeting will be called in the immediate future for the completion of a report to be presented to a later meeting of the entire membership of the association.

After investigating past proposals of county division for the consolidation of several of the cities in the western part of it, the association finds this unnecessary and has gone on record as opposed to any county division. It holds that much better service can be rendered by the retention of the political integrity and a federation of all the cities and towns.

CONSOLIDATE OFFICES.
In the plan proposed by the association there has been recognition of the fact that the rural population should not be asked to bear the burden of city taxation and its efforts have been directed toward devising a plan that would consolidate as far as possible the city and county offices at the same time leave undisturbed the identity of the various cities and towns undisturbed so that they might, in local affairs, govern themselves.

It will be the endeavor of the Tax Association to give the rural communities a more efficient form of county government without placing the burden of increased taxation upon them.

The result which it is proposed to accomplish is a more efficient and economical government with consequent economy, the elimination of all duplication of effort and a more compact and centralized responsibility in opposition to the lack of system and the division of authority now existing.

COUNTY DIVISION UNNECESSARY.
At the preliminary meeting of the association, building contractors, were awarded the contract for building the new Union high school here by the board of High School trustees, this morning. The bid accepted was $52,594, that being the lowest of nine.

Whether or not C. Christensen, an Oakland contractor, who withdrew his bid, which had been accepted by the board, will be made to pay the difference between the bid and the one accepted today, has been passed up to the district attorney's office.

Christensen's bid was $10,512 and the president of the board believes that he can afford to stand the difference between the bid and the one accepted today, but the contractor placed a bond with the board to cover the difference.

Work on the school will be carried along and an effort be made to complete it by January of next year. Arrangements are being made for elaborate ceremonies when the cornerstone is laid. The High and alloy club of Hayward will have charge of the arrangements, and J. W. McClelland, president of the Oakland Board of Education, will be asked to deliver an address.

Work on the school will be carried along and an effort be made to complete it by January of next year. Arrangements are being made for elaborate ceremonies when the cornerstone is laid. The High and alloy club of Hayward will have charge of the arrangements, and J. W. McClelland, president of the Oakland Board of Education, will be asked to deliver an address.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR NEW SCHOOL
Hayward Board of Trustees Accept the Bid of $52,594.

HAYWARD, Oct. 2.—Thurston and Company, building contractors, were awarded the contract for building the new Union high school here by the board of High School trustees, this morning. The bid accepted was $52,594, that being the lowest of nine.

Whether or not C. Christensen, an Oakland contractor, who withdrew his bid, which had been accepted by the board, will be made to pay the difference between the bid and the one accepted today, has been passed up to the district attorney's office.

Christensen's bid was $10,512 and the president of the board believes that he can afford to stand the difference between the bid and the one accepted today, but the contractor placed a bond with the board to cover the difference.

Work on the school will be carried along and an effort be made to complete it by January of next year. Arrangements are being made for elaborate ceremonies when the cornerstone is laid. The High and alloy club of Hayward will have charge of the arrangements, and J. W. McClelland, president of the Oakland Board of Education, will be asked to deliver an address.
